

YANKOWITZ-SHANSKY WEDDING ON SUNDAY

Ceremony Takes Place at Beth Israel Synagogue and Re- ception Follows

Miss Mae Shansky, daughter of Mrs. Fanny Shansky of Brooklyn, N. Y., became the bride of Sidney Yankowitz, 1037 High street, son of Mrs. Mary Yankowitz of the Bronx, N. Y., in the Beth Israel Synagogue Sunday evening at 7.30. Rev. Abraham May performed the single ring ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Frank Shansky of Milwaukee, Wis. The best man was Joseph Yankowitz of Bath, a brother of the groom.

The bride wore a one-piece gray silk dress with gray lace bodice and matching jacket. Cherry-toned accessories and a corsage of white orchids completed her outfit.

In the receiving line at the reception held afterwards in the vestry were, besides the bride and groom, the bride's mother, Mrs. Shansky, the groom's mother, Mrs. Yankowitz, and the bride's aunt, Mrs. Dora Rabino-witz, also of New York City.

Out of town guests included Samuel Shansky, a brother of the bride, of Brooklyn; Mrs. Nat Weiner of Boston; and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Smith of Brunswick.

Following a short wedding trip to Old Orchard, Mr. and Mrs. Yankowitz will return Thursday to their temporary home at 247 Center street.

Mrs. Yankowitz, born in Brooklyn, graduated from Barringer High school, Newark, N. J., in 1938 and attended Newark Junior college and the Girls' Vocational school there. She has been employed as a Vitos operator in New York for 2 1-2 years.

Mr. Yankowitz, born in New York City, graduated from Commerce High school in 1938 and attended Hunter Evening college in New York for two years. He is employed in the production department of the Bath Iron Works Corp.
