

Bath, Me., News Notes

By SOPHIE G. GREENBLATT

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mack, son, Myron, and twin daughters, Rita and Shirley, of Portland, passed Rosh Hashonah with Mrs. Mack's mother, Mrs. Benjamin S. Gedman.

Miss Minnie Brown, who is employed in the office of the attorney-general in Augusta, passed Rosh Hashonah with her mother, Mrs. Harry Brown.

Dr. and Mrs. Harry E. Davis and daughter, Patricia, of Portland, were Rosh Hashonah guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Solovitch.

Dr. and Mrs. Joseph I. Smith had as Rosh Hashonah guests his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Smith of Brunswick, and their grandchildren, Miss Betty Hayeson and Milton Hayeson, also of Brunswick.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Abelson and sons, Israel and Harry, of Brunswick, passed Rosh Hashonah in Bath.

Dr. and Mrs. Harold I. Goldman and two children of Freeport, were in the city Rosh Hashonah.

Miss Thelma Goldstein, who is employed in Boston, passed Rosh Hashonah with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Goldstein.

Benjamin S. Gedman was in Gardiner to conduct the Rosh Hashonah services there.

Mrs. Nathan Povich, who passed the summer in Bar Harbor, is at her home in Bath for the High Holy days.

Mrs. Louis M. Silverman, who was in charge of a card party, and Miss Sophie G. Greenblatt, in charge of advertising and publicity, were members of a committee for the recent Cosmopolitan Club lawn party, most of the events of which were cancelled because of the ban against beer and other games of chance, announced the day before the party.

Miss Mary Arlik, who has been staying at the home of her sister, Mrs. David S. Cogan, is at her home in Laconia, N. H., to pass the Holy Days with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Charles Arlik, and brother, Isidore Arlik.

William D. Levin and Jesse H. Levin, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Levin, are attending Bowdoin College, William as a sophomore and Jesse as a freshman. The latter was graduated in '31 from Morse, where his activities included managing the baseball team his senior year; membership in the H-Y Club, Latin Club, French Club and orchestra. His brother was graduated from Morse in '32.

The first of a series of card parties for the benefit of the Morse High School chapter of the National Honor Society was held recently at the home of Mrs. David S. Cogan, a charter member of the chapter.

Mrs. Wilmer L. Vuorhies, chairman of the local Council A, Girl Scouts, recently entertained the council and members of the Leaders' Association. Mrs. David S. Cogan of the council and Miss Sophie G. Greenblatt, a member of the latter, were among those present. Pine Tree Troop No. 1, of which Miss Greenblatt is a lieutenant, has started its sixth year, on Miss Greenblatt being one of the assisting Mrs. Linwood F. Carr in organizing the troop, the oldest in this city and still captained by Mrs. Carr.

Mrs. Max Kutz was recently in Dorchester, Mass., passing a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Hershon.

Dr. Joseph I. Smith was principal speaker at the quarterly meeting of the Central District of the Maine State Nurses' Association in this city recently. Municipal Health Officer Dr. Smith also spoke at the recent Regional Red Cross Conference in Bath.

Mr. and Mrs. David S. Cogan and the former's brother, Morris H. Cohen, were in Roxbury recently to attend the wedding of Miss Rose Freedman of Augusta to Philip Fixman of Brockton, in the Aperion Plaza. Mr. Cohen's daughter, Miss Ruth E. Cohen, who is attending Simmons College, also attended the wedding.

Mrs. Samuel Levin was a recent business visitor in Boston.

Miss Goldie Povich of Boston and Miss Celie Povich of Portland passed Rosh Hashonah with their mother, Mrs. Nathan Povich.

Riva Civia Greenblatt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Solomon K. Greenblatt, returned recently to the second grade, Mitchell School, after having been confined to her home more than a week following an operation for the removal of tonsils and adenoids in Bath Memorial Hospital.

Miss Bessie M. Mikel was in Boston recently for the annual Fall Furniture Show at the Furniture Mart. Miss Sophia Mikel was also in the Hub completing her selection of new Fall styles in furniture.

Miss Ruth E. Cohen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris H. Cohen, is attending Simmons College in Boston. She was graduated in June from Morse as valedictorian of her class, numbering 53, and was also awarded the prize for the class scoring highest in the annual Elizabeth R. Moses General Information Test. She is a member of the National Honor Society.

Sarah Silverman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis M. Silverman, and second grade pupil at North Primary School, won honorable mention for her exhibit in the children's contest at the first annual flower show of the Cosmopolitan Garden Club. Mrs. Silverman was a member of the flower show committee, being in charge of the children's displays.

Mrs. Harry Arenstam of New York, daughter Mrs. Benjamin Bernstein, and Mr. Bernstein, of Augusta, were recent visitors in Bath where the Arenstams formerly lived.

Mr. Elly Weinstein of Portland was a recent guest of her sister, Mrs. Samuel Povich. Another sister, Mrs. Wladimir Kurwiz, daughter, Estelle, and son, Roger, of Dorchester, visited Mrs. Povich late in August, and while here the children were entertained at a party, at which those present included Sylvia Petlock of Mattapan, and Sylvia Cohen and Riva Civia Greenblatt.

Among last year's veterans on the Morse High football team this fall is Leon W. Greenblatt, tackle. He is a member of the junior class.