

Bath, Me., News Notes

By SOPHIE G. GREENBLATT

Mrs. Samuel Korolick was hostess to the Hebrew Ladies' Society Sunday evening. Mrs. Morris S. Povich presided in the absence of Mrs. David S. Cogan, president, and plans were made for a bridge party to be held February 7. Mrs. Morris H. Cohen and Mrs. Samuel Levin will be the general committee. Mrs. Joseph I. Smith is to have charge of a Purim entertainment, to be given by her Sunday school class.

At a meeting of the Men's Congregation Sunday evening in the vestry of Beth Israel Synagogue, plans were discussed for a semi-formal public dance, and arrangements were left in the hands of a committee composed of Jacob Goldstein, president, David S. Cogan and Samuel Prawer.

Mrs. Joseph I. Smith and her mother, Mrs. Lewis Orkin of Geneva, O., who is visiting her, were recent Portland visitors.

Miss Esta M. Gedman has returned after passing a few weeks in New York, in Fall River, and in Boston and vicinity.

Harold J. Rubin, B. U. Law School '36, was voted membership in the Sagadahoc Bar Association at a meeting held in Bath, Saturday, January 23.

Mr. and Mrs. Max H. Singer of Brunswick, daughter, Miss Goldie Singer, of Lisbon Falls, and Morris C. Robinson and daughter Judith, also of Lisbon Falls, were Portland visitors Sunday, calling on William Singer and Mr. and Mrs. Morris A. Singer.

Mrs. Louis Abelen of Brunswick has been visiting in Portland with her daughter, Mrs. Fred Palais, of Park avenue.

Max Kutz was in Dorchester recently to pass a few days with his brother, Louis Kutz.