

Bath, Me., News Notes

By SOPHIA G. GREENBLATT

Mrs. Jacob Goldstein is passing a week at Old Orchard Beach. Mr. and Mrs. Goldstein, accompanied by their daughter, Miss Thelma Goldstein, who is employed in Lewiston, passed last week in Boston.

Joan Korolick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Korolick, entertained more than 20 of her little friends recently in celebration of her fifth birthday. The guests included Arnold, Edward, Gerald and Ruth Cogan, Ida and Sylvia Cohen, Alvin and Rita Gediman, Riva Civia Greenblatt, Harrisia Korolick, Robert Levine, Gilbert Prawer, Bladen and Jimmy Smith, all of Bath; Lois Fine of Brockton, Norma Goldman of Freeport, Lona Fay Kramer of Portland, Sylvia Petlock of Mattapan, Judith Robinson of Lisbon Falls. Also present were Mrs. David S. Cogan, Mrs. Sam Prawer, Mrs. Jacob Smith, Mrs. Joseph I. Smith, all of Bath; Mrs. George Fine of Brockton, and Mr. and Mrs. Abe Kramer of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Tallman of Hollywood, Calif., recently visited their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin S. Gediman, before leaving on a trip to Canada. They left Hollywood July 4 and have travelled extensively across the continent, also visiting in Cuba. Mrs. Tallman, supervisor of the art department for the 68 schools in Los Angeles and Hollywood, is a former Boston girl; her husband is location man and cameraman for Warner Bros.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis M. Silverman were recent week-end visitors in Naples, attending the water carnival given by Highland Nature camp, where their daughter, Sarah Libby Silverman, is passing the month.

Judith Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris C. Robinson of Lisbon Falls, recently passed a week as guest of Riva Civia Greenblatt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Solomon K. Greenblatt.

Miss Sophia M. Mikels, representing Mikelsky's, Inc., was in New York recently to attend the 36th annual convention of the National Association of Music Merchants, of which Mikelsky's has been a member since 1916.

There was a large attendance, including several from out of town, at the annual picnic of the Hebrew Ladies Society of Beth Israel Synagogue recently at Sandy Cove. Swimming and a program of games were enjoyed. Mrs. Jacob Smith, Mrs. David S. Cogan, Mrs. Arthur W. Gediman and Mrs. Sam Prawer were in charge of sports and prizes.

Miss Beverly Goldman of Malden is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Miller, having come to join her mother, Mrs. Joseph Goldman, daughter, Ada, and son, Lawrence, who arrived earlier in the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. David H. Pierce and son, William, of Cleveland Heights, O., and Miss Dellis Orkin of Chicago, were recent guests of Dr. and Mrs. Joseph I. Smith at their cottage at Foster's Point. Mrs. Smith is a sister of Mrs. Pierce and Miss Orkin.

Porter: "Did you miss that train, suh?"

Puffing Passenger: "No! I didn't like the looks of it, so I chased it out of the station."—Dixie Underwriter.