

pres., Mrs. Samuel Mack; secy., Miss
Lena Mikelsky, and treas., Miss Ruth Gediman.

NATICK

For the first time in the history of Natick, at the suggestion of Mr. B. S. Rosenthal, the organizer, New Year services were held in this town. The following officers were chosen for the permanent organization: President, L. Mordis; vice-pres., Mr. Muskat; secy. and treas., B. S. Rosenthal. The outcome was so successful that the members voted to have services every Sabbath.

Miss Anne R. Rosenthal of 56 Summer St., is a freshman at Wellesley College.

LIBRARY OPEN IN SPRINGFIELD

The Memorial Square branch library of Springfield, from which children have been temporarily excluded on account of the prevalence of infantile paralysis, is now open to them once more. The only reason for the temporary exclusion was to prevent children from congregating in public places. The library has not been closed to adults at any time, although an impression to that effect prevailed. Books may now be borrowed by both adults and children as usual.

PROVIDENCE, R. I.

Mr. Hyman J. Danzig of Boston, addressed the Cong. Ahavath Sholom on New Year's morning. His appeal for funds to help raise the mortgage was so well received that the sum of $10,000 was raised.

Temple Ahavath Sholom has engaged Mr. Abraham Alpert of Boston, to preach on Yom Kippur after Kol Nidre and before Musaf, who will speak on "The Significance of Yom Kippur."

BATH, ME.

The Naomi Club held a delightful session Sunday evening, Sept. 24th, with the Misses Eva and Sadie Miller as hostesses. It was a renewal of the regular fortnightly sessions of the organization, after a recess of ten weeks. The officers are as follows: President, Mrs. Morris Povich; vice-