

Bath, Maine, News - Notes

By SOPHIE G. GREENBLATT

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin S. Gediman, Edward Gediman and Miss Esta M. Gediman were among those in Boston Sunday to attend the wedding of Samuel Bloom and Miss Goldie Svetkey, both of Boston, formerly of Auburn. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Addie Bloom, former Bath residents.

Miss Edith Botzin has returned to her home in Dorchester after passing two weeks as a guest of Miss Sylvia Kutz.

Miss Esta M. Gediman has returned to her home in this city from Fall River, Mass., where she has been employed, after completing her duties there.

Mrs. Charles Arik of Laconia, N. H., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. David S. Cogan, and family.

Miss Isabel Gediman has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Joseph Mack, and family, in Portland.

Miss Ruth Cogan is in Laconia, N. H., where she is visiting her grandfather, Rev. Charles Arik, and daughter, Miss Mary Arik.

Mrs. Abraham Libman and son, Leo Libman, of Dorchester, were recent guests of Mrs. Libman's brother, Solomon K. Greenblatt, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Solomon K. Greenblatt celebrated their 28th wedding anniversary on Tuesday, August 27. They entertained with a family supper party.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gediman and two daughters, Diane and Joan, left recently for their home in Hollywood, after passing a week with Mr. Gediman's brother, Benjamin S. Gediman, and family. They passed six weeks in New England visiting relatives and friends. Their daughter, Mrs. Pauline Tolman, who accompanied them East, left suddenly for California, when she received word of an accident her husband received in an airplane. Mrs. Tolman flew from Chicago to Hollywood.

Mrs. Louis Petlock of Mattapan arrived recently to join her daughter, Sylvia, who has been visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Petlock. She was accompanied to Bath for the day by Mr. Petlock and by Mr. and Mrs. Max Miller and daughters, the Misses Senna and Lorraine Miller, also of Mattapan.

The Swastika Needle Craft Shop and the Women's Exchange has changed hands. William W. Robinson, identified with the business for more than 30 years, has sold out to Mrs. David S. Cogan and Mrs. Morris H. Cohen.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Cronsberg and son, Sidney, were recent visitors at Williston Park, Long Island, N. Y., for a week.

Miss Ida Lindenburg, and twin sister, Miss Sara Lindenburg, recently passed two weeks in Hartford, Conn.

Miss Sophie G. Greenblatt has resumed duties on the Times staff after a vacation passed in Boston and at Pine Tree Camp, First National Girl Scout Training School, at Long Pond, Plymouth, Mass.

Mrs. Charles Ginsberg and son, Louis, of Newport, are visiting her mother, Mrs. Louis Mikelsky and sister, Miss Pauline Mike'sky. Mrs. Max Cohen of Albany, N. Y., formerly Lena Mikelsky, was a recent guest of her mother and sisters.

Edward P. Cohen recently passed two weeks at Camp William Hinds, Panther Pond, Raymond. Cohen is leader of the Eagle patrol of Troop 53, Boy Scouts, and a Star scout.