

Bath, Maine, News and Views

Mr. and Mrs. Morris S. Povich motored to Waterboro and Alfred recently with their sons, Albert and Donald, who remained to spend the summer months at Camp Emoh.

Mrs. Benjamin F. Mensh and son, Nathan, of Washington, D. C., recently stopped in Bath to visit relatives while on their way to Bar Harbor, where they will remain until October with the former's mother, Mrs. Nathan Povich. Mrs. Mensh was formerly Miss Dorica Povich.

Dr. Harold S. Schiro was a recent guest of his aunt, Mrs. Samuel Levin, and uncle, Mr. Levin, while spending three weeks in Maine with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Schiro of Bangor. Dr. Schiro, who has just completed a year as assistant resident physician at Duke Hospital, Durham, N. C., is now in Cincinnati, Ohio, where he will serve for a year as assistant resident physician in medicine and research.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Smith of Brunswick have announced the engagement of their daughter, Ida Katherine, to Harry Yankow of New York City. Miss Smith, a sister of Dr. Joseph I. Smith of Bath, was graduated from Brunswick High School in '33 and has been making her home with her sister, Mrs. Joseph Gladstone of Trenton, N. J. Mr. Yankow is a graduate of Columbia University and is a court reporter with the New York City Supreme Court.

Mrs. Joseph I. Smith, president, presided over the quarterly meeting of the Maine Progressive Union of Clubs in Freeport with the Freeport Woman's Club as hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ginsberg and son, Louis, of Newport, were holiday guests of Mrs. Louis Mikelsky and Miss Pauline Mikelsky. They spent Sunday at Biddeford and Old Orchard Beach.

Mrs. Charles Arik and daughter, Miss Mary Arik, are expected to make their home in Bath. They come here from Laconia, N. H., following the death on June 25 of Rev. Charles Arik. Mr. Arik died in the Laconia hospital, where he had been a patient since February. He came to Bath nineteen years ago, and for seven years following was leader of the Jewish community here and was instrumental in the establishment of the Beth Israel synagogue, of which he was a charter member. Mr. Arik held pastorates in Rumford, in Washington, New York, Massachusetts, and in North Carolina. He was a Mason, belonging to both Blue Lodge and Chapter. While in Bath he belonged to the Improved Order of Red Men and the Degree of Pochontas. Besides his wife and the daughter mentioned, he is survived by another daughter, Anna S., wife of David S. Cogan of Bath, and one son, Isidore, who will remain in Laconia for the present; four sisters, two of them in Athol, Mass., and Gardner, and two in Kovins; and by four grandchildren, Ruth E., Edward, Gerald L., and Arnold M., of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Weiner of Roxbury spent the week-end in Brunswick as guests of Mrs. Weiner's sister, Mrs. Max H. Singer, and Mr. Singer. Mrs. Weiner and Mrs. Singer were in Bath on Sunday as guests of the latter's son, Isadore Singer, and Mrs. Singer. Mrs. Morris C. Robinson and children, Judith and Merton, of Lisbon Falls, also visited with Mrs. Robinson's brother, Mr. Singer, and his wife, on Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Israel of New York, formerly Miss Rachel Mikelsky; Miss Pauline Mikelsky of this city, and Mrs. Joseph Mack of Portland formerly Miss Ruth Gediman, attended the 45th annual banquet of the Bath High School Alumni Association in June at which time they observed the 25th anniversary of their graduation from Morse High School.

Mrs. Minnie Hershowitz of Dorchester, and daughter, Mrs. Jacob M. Daum of Springfield, were guests of their daughter and sister, Mrs. Max Kutz, and Mr. Kutz while attending the graduation exercises of Miss Sylvia Kutz. Mrs. Philip Hershon of Dorchester was also in the city for the exercises. Miss Kutz, one of the few members of the class of 90 members; belonging to the National Honor Society, was French club president a member of the Glee and Dramatic Clubs, and was one of the Senior Girls' Glee Club members appearing on the graduation program.

Joseph L. Singer, Bowdoin '33 was awarded his degree of bachelor of laws from the School of Law of Boston University at its 63rd annual commencement exercises recently. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Max H. Singer of Brunswick and a brother of Isadore Singer of this city.

Harrisia Lee is the name given the daughter born recently to Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Korolick.