

Bath, Me., News Notes

By SOPHIE G. GREENBLATT

Dr. H. Jacob Smith, a brother of Dr. Joseph I. Smith, who has practiced medicine in Bath the last few years, opened offices here on Tuesday. A native of Brunswick, Dr. Smith was graduated from Bowdoin College in 1931 and the University of Vermont, where he studied the medical course, in 1935. He interned at the Auburn City Hospital, Auburn, N. Y.

Dr. Smith was married to Miss Sara Levine of Burlington, Vt., recently in Plattsburg, N. Y. They will make their home in this city at 146 Oak street.

Miss Beverly Goldman of Malden, Mass., is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Miller, until Labor Day. Miss Ada and Lawrence Goldman have rejoined their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Goldman, after passing several weeks with their grandparents.

Miss Sylvia Kutz, prominent member of the class of 1936, Morse High School, enters Rider College, Trenton, N. J., on Tuesday. Miss Kutz, a member of the National Honor Society, leaves Sunday for Boston, where she will visit relatives before going to Trenton. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max Kutz.

Albert and Donald Povich have returned after passing the summer at Camp Emoh. Their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Morris S. Povich, motored to the camp at Alfred for them.

Harry Baum of Springfield, Mass., leaves Sunday for his home after passing two weeks with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Max Kutz. He enters Clark University, Worcester, Mass., this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ginsberg and son, Lewis, of Newport, have returned after a visit with Mrs. Ginsberg's mother, Mrs. Lewis Mikelsky, and sister, Miss Pauline Mikelsky.

Rev. Max Klatzkin was a Boston visitor early this week.

Dr. and Mrs. Joseph I. Smith, son, Bladen, of this city, Dr. Smith's sister, Miss Ida K. Smith, of Brunswick and Trenton, N. J., and fiance, Harry Yankow of New York City, passed the week-end in Montreal.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Weinstein, whose wedding took place Sunday afternoon, August 9, in New Haven, Conn., are making their home at 161 Greenwood street, this city, following a wedding trip to the Berkshire Mountains. Mr. Weinstein, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Weinstein of 73 Merrill street, Portland, is a brother of Mrs. Samuel Povich of this city. Mrs. Weinstein is the former Miss Vera D. Padroff of New Haven.