Hiram H. Smith of Brunswick, 32, died Tuesday morning, January 18, in Bath Memorial Hospital from an illness of three months.

He was born in Brunswick, a son of Samuel H. and Mary Mack Smith, who survive him, as do his wife, Marguerite, and two sons, Peter and David, all of Brunswick. Other survivors are four brothers, William of Trenton, N. J., Dr. Morris of Bethlehem, Pa., Dr. Joseph I. and Dr. Jacob, both of Bath; and by three sisters, Mrs. Bernard Simpson and Mrs. Joseph Gladstone, both of Trenton, N. J., and Mrs. Mary Yankowitz, of New York City.

The Hebrew Ladies' Society sponsored a surprise package party in the vestry of Beth Israel Synagogue Sunday evening, January 23. Mrs. Max Kutz was in charge, Sam Prawer, Morris S. Povich and Louis M. Silverman assisting as auctioneers. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Morris S. Povich, Mrs. David S. Cogan, Mrs. Morris H. Cohen, Mrs. Jacob Goldstein, and Mrs. Samuel Korolick.

Miss Bessie Mikels and Louis M. Silverman were in Chicago recently to attend the mid-winter furniture show at the American Furniture Mart and the spring opening held at the Merchandise Mart, as well as the show at the Hotel Stevens.

Mrs. David S. Cogan and Miss Ada Y. Greenblatt were among the members of committees in charge of the fourth annual mother-daughter banquet of the Cosmopolitan Club, January 19. Mrs. Joseph I. Smith had charge of arrangements for the speaker. Others attending were Mrs. Samuel R. Korolick, Joan Korolick, Miss Ida R. Cohen, Miss Bessie Mikels, Mrs. Louis M. Silverman, Mrs. Solomon K. Greenblatt, Miss Sophie G. Greenblatt.

Miss Esther J. Petlock and Miss Evelyn Petlock entertained Tuesday evening in the vestry of Beth Israel Synagogue with a surprise miscellaneous shower for Miss Sophie G. Greenblatt, whose marriage to Albert Friedman of Augusta will take place March 13 in the synagogue. The wedding will be the first in the 16-year-old synagogue. The hostesses were assisted in serving by Miss Jeannette Miller and Mrs. Morris H. Cohen.
