Formal Protests Are Lodged For Treatment Of Jews In Russia

Women's Club Donors Jan. 27 To Benefit Center Day Camp

The hue and cry engendered by the Soviet highjacking trials seems to be bearing fruit. The two death sentences have been commuted, even though these prisoners face, instead, fifteen years at hard labor. In addition, the sentences of three others have been reduced. The severity of the original sentences brought protests and appeals for clemency by government, religious and lay leaders all over the world which, reportedly, caught the Soviet authorities by surprise.

There was no actual highjacking. The 11 sentenced in this first trial were arrested on charges of plotting to highjack a plane to Israel. And this is far from the end. Other trials are in the offing, show trials that will, in all probability, become an instrument for reminding other Russian Jews of the futility of attempting to leave the Soviet, and which may make these first trials seem comparatively lenient.

On the last day of this year, 400 Jewish leaders converged on our nation's capitol. Portland's own Rabbi Morris Bekritsky, Vice President of the Rabbinical Council, was among them. The group was coordinated by the American Jewish Conference on Soviet Jewry and the Conference of Presidents of Major American-Jewish Organizations. Many non-Jewish as well as Jewish political and civic leaders addressed the group. 48 congressional signatures were collected on an appeal to Soviet Ambassador Anatoly Dobrynin, and a number of Senators have called for action by President Nixon on behalf of Soviet Jewry.

In addition to all the activity emanating from Washington, formal protests were lodged by Britain, France, the Vatican, West Germany, Denmark, Norway and Austria. In Israel, where (understandably) feelings ran especially high, an entire session of parliament was devoted to protesting the highjacking trials and the manner in which Israel could make her displeasure known to the entire world.

Center Membership Policy To Be Fully Implemented

Our statement that "your dues must be paid up to participate in Center activities" has been an old cliché. While we have wanted this to be in effect, we have not always adhered to this policy. Rather than embarrass our members at times, we have permitted them the use of the facilities or admittance to some function.

The administration of the Center Day Camp is big business. Economics are being affected in whatever direction possible so that the Center staff can serve its members effectively. We have endeavored to offer programs and activities many times without any additional assessment. In other cases, the fee we have levied has been a nominal one to help us meet some of the expenses while the balance was subsidized by the Center. Our program for the rest of the coming season is varied and diversified for every member of the family.

All of you by now have received your 1971 dues statement. Many of you, now, as in the past, will respond as quickly as you have always done. There are always some whom we must constantly bill. Our membership policy has been put on a budget plan; one third to be paid by Jan. 15, the second third by Feb. 15, and final payment by March 15.

Upon receipt of your payment, we will send you a membership card punched signifying whether you have made partial or full payment.

It is now the desire of the board of directors and membership committee that you carry your membership card at all times when attending a Center function. This is particularly so when attending socials, dances, lectures, athletic participating, use of Sauna, etc.

Any member who is in arrears (who has not paid the 1970 dues or made payment according to the payment plan outlined) will not be permitted to participate in the program. Please do not embarrass the staff or committee member by insisting that you be given "preferential favor." On the other hand, do not be embarrassed in front of

Friendship Group Has Latke Party

In spite of bitter cold weather our Friendship Club met at the Center for delicious potato latkes prepared by Gussie Mack and her committee.

After an exchange of gifts we were entertained by Ruth Finn, who told many amusing anecdotes. All in all it was a most enjoyable afternoon.

Centerland To Attend Youth Concert Sunday, January 10

On Sunday, January 10, at 2:30 p.m., we are taking the boys and girls who registered for Centerland to the Youth Concert of the Portland Symphony Orchestra for Youth.

Please leave your children off at City Hall at 2:30 p.m. where there will be chaperones to take care of them and please be back at City Hall to pick them up at 4:00 p.m. We promise your youngsters will have a most exciting experience.

Operation Shape-Up For A Better You

Is your New Year's resolution "Be Leaner, Lighter in 1971"? Then Operation Shape-Up is the answer for you.

Starting at 10 a.m. every Thursday with exercise to music, join the girls at the Center's own Health Club.

After a fun and invigorating exercise class, you can go on to use the exercising machines, whirlpool and Sauna. You will feel well and look even better.

Thank You

We wish to thank our many friends in the Friendship Club and all the other clubs and organizations for their generous donations in memory of Harry H. Agger.

Council Of Jewish Women To Award Scholarships

This year the Portland Section, National Council of Jewish Women, is again planning to award its outright scholarships to Jewish high school boys and girls from the greater Portland area who are planning to further their education in college or vocational school. Although academic achievement is important, it is by no means our only consideration.

In addition to our scholarships, we have an interest-free loan program which is available to high school seniors, college students, and graduate students. I would be happy to have anyone interested in the scholarship loans contact me.

Application forms for scholarships and/or loans are available from:

FORMAL PROTESTS LODGED:

Here in Portland, Mrs. Harry Z. Sky is Chairman of the Jewish Federation's Committee on Soviet Jewry. She and her committee have been planning various activities geared to protesting the treatment of Soviet Jews. Letters appealing for action have been sent to our congressmen, senators, President Nixon and Soviet Ambassador Dobrynin over the signature of Sumner T. Bernstein, Federation's president. Also, Rabbi Harry Z. Sky and Jerry Slivka recently were heard on Radio Station WGAN's Main Line program where, for two hours, they discussed the plight of Soviet Jewry with all callers.

It would seem that every one of us has his work cut out for him. We must continue to bombard our Senators and Congressmen, the Russian Ambassador and even President Nixon with letters and telegrams protesting these trials and the severity of the sentences imposed on these unfortunate Jews whose crime is a desire to leave Russia and emigrate to Israel, where they may live as Jews.

Iota Phi Sponsors A Tea For Benefit Of Federation

A Tea in honor of the Jewish Federation will be sponsored by the Iota Phi Sorority on Sunday, January 31, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Morrill Shapiro, at 2:00 p. m.

The public is cordially invited to attend. Contributions will be greatly appreciated.

Iota Phi Formal To Be Held Sat., Feb. 13

Saturday, February 13, is the date for the annual Iota Phi Sorority formal. The theme this year will be "We've Only Just Begun." This affair will be held at Howard Johnson's Motel, Riverside Road, Portland.

It promises to be a delightful evening with music performed by the "Blueberry Dream."

Nino's will be handicapped for the next few weeks as big Mike Schwartz, Nino himself, will be out of action with an ankle injury.

It is paddleball tournament time. All those wishing to participate in this tournament, whether in singles or doubles, are requested to sign up in the gym as soon as possible.

High school and Tweens will have their tournament at a later date.

Remember that Thursday nights are the time when the girls have full use of the gym. They start the evening with a tension-filled basketball game. They then retire to relax in the Sauna and spa.

We would appreciate it if you would support the program.

others if you are reminded that you are in arrears.

The monies we receive from the United Fund and the income we get from within our own building from fees, rentals, memberships, etc., must balance at the end of the year. We cannot assume that membership dues will be forthcoming promptly, but we also find that after usage of the facilities by some of the members after one or two years we are told they do not wish to pay.

It is not the intention of any committee member to keep any member from participating or to act as a policeman, but they are endeavoring to implement good business practice in a growing concern.

Please help us with the following:

1. Pay your dues as promptly as possible.
2. Please carry your membership card with you at all times. (You will be as proud to display this card as much as you do your fraternal, religious or social card you carry.)
3. Should you know of anyone who is financially unable to join or pay Center dues, please call or see your Center executive director and inform him of this situation. This information is kept strictly confidential.

Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.

Laurent Roy To Address Shaarey Tphiloh Institute

Mr. Laurent Roy, family consultant expert of the Child and Family Service, will address the second session of the Shaarey Tphiloh Adult Institute on Sunday, January 17, at 8:00 p.m., at 76 Noyes Street.

Topic:

DO WE PREPARE OUR CHILDREN FOR MARRIAGE?

The themes to be considered are:

1. Can we allow our children autonomy and independence?
2. Are we willing to let go?
3. How do we let go?
4. How do we gauge ability and readiness to handle responsibility?
5. How do we handle the built-in tension between parent and child?
6. How do we develop a human being ability to relate and communicate?
7. Do we respect our children as individuals and human beings?

Other questions of equal importance will be raised.

All are welcome. Refreshments will be served by the Sisterhood.

Golf Instruction To Be Given
 Center Members By Local Pro

Golf instruction at the Center will be under the capable direction of popular Joe Falcone, who taught at the Center last winter and was golf pro at the Val Halla Golf Course this past summer. Classes for instruction will be held in the gymnasium and on the fifth floor where the newly installed driving net has been set up.

In addition to Joe's work as the golf pro at Val Halla, he has a full and rounded series of golf experiences. He has been affiliated with the Prouts Neck Country Club in Scarborough, Brunswick Naval Air Station and the Gilford Country Club of Laconia, New Hampshire.

He is an excellent instructor and is currently instructing in the South Portland Recreation Program.

The evening will be divided into two sessions. The first session will start at 7:15 p.m., continuing to 8:15 p.m., and the other group at 8:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. It will be absolutely necessary to have at least 12 members in a class.

The fee is $10.00 for 10 lessons and will begin on Tuesday, January 29.

Payment must be made before class time. Make your call to the Center, 772-1959, and enroll your name now.

If you have your own clubs, and want to use them, bring them with you.
