A Message from Rabbi Saks

My parents were great about bringing my brother and me to family Shabbat services on a regular basis when I was growing up. They took pride in our receiving a strong Jewish education. Regular holiday participation was also a cornerstone of my childhood. One of the experiences that I remember fondly was spending much of the day at temple for Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. Involvement in my Jewish community as a child gave me a solid foundation that kept me connected to Judaism through my teen years, my time at college and into my adult life. I found such comfort being in my synagogue that a group of friends and I dubbed ourselves the Friday Night Oneg Club. I think we even had t-shirts with "F.N.O.C." printed on them. A few of us became Jewish professionals, though the majority of us simply took pleasure in being present at our congregation.

Of all of the days of the Jewish year, there is one that calls us to be present more than the others. That day is Yom Kippur. You may have noticed that the morning liturgy for Yom Kippur lacks the familiar ending of our other worship services.

It does not include Aleinu or Kaddish, the concluding prayers of the other services. The reason is that the day of Yom Kippur is treated like one service that stretches from daybreak until the blast of the shofar signals the end of the Ten Days of Awe. The healing and meditation service, the afternoon study session, the afternoon and Yizkor services and the Neilah service that concludes Yom Kippur are all part of one extended observance. As a child, when I couldn't sit through the entire service and would join my friends in the hallway outside the sanctuary, I still understood the power of simply being present for the day.

For many of us at Bet Ha'am, worship on Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur is a primary focus. For others, the opportunity to be together as a community and see friends whom we may not have seen for a long time is reason enough to be present. And for some, contributing to our community and supporting the experience of others gives the holidays greater meaning. With this in mind, I want to share a variety of ways you can choose to be present throughout the High Holy Days this year. Whether you find yourself in the sanctuary with a prayer book or in the halls and classrooms of Bet Ha'am, there are many ways simply to be present.

Last year we began offering an experience called Project Shofar in addition to our regular childcare. Project Shofar supports children from three years old through third grade to participate in learning and craft experiences while their parents are worshipping in the sanctuary. We always need volunteers to be present with these children and create both meaningful holiday experiences for

President's Message - Lisa Munderback

By the time you read this, it will be the month of Elul, the month before the High Holy Days. Elul is when we search our hearts and make amends for hurts done to others and promises not kept. One of the themes of Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur is vows and promises. Hopefully we have made honest efforts to follow through on these promises. If we have failed to make good on them and if we apologize for missing the mark, then we hope that those whom we've disappointed or hurt will forgive us.

Communication is so important in all of our relationships. It's one of the things that I fall short on. Every year I tell myself I will do better. Sometimes I do, and often I don't. One example is the discussion our congregation has been having about the roles of our members who don't identify as Jewish. I have been negligent in communicating and keeping everyone informed of our discussions, despite my intention to do so. I apologize, and I will share a synopsis to bring everyone up to date.

For several years the Board has grappled with how we can be a more welcoming congregation, and Rabbi Saks has shared a number of ways and approaches we could take to meet that goal. During the Strategic Planning process we learned that some people have strong feelings that non-Jewish members do not feel welcomed and feel disenfranchised. In November 2013 I wrote a column for Chadashot about our practices related to our non-Jewish members. The responses I received in emails and phone calls made it clear that there were strong feelings and opinions on all sides of this topic. It also became clear that this could be a divisive issue for our congregation. As a Board, we wanted to continue to address these questions but felt we needed to develop deeper connections among members to sustain us through what were likely to be difficult conversations.

We decided to hold a series of neighborhood meetings during spring and early summer to develop connections among members who live near each other. About 90 members have participated, and we may hold a few more neighborhood meetings in early fall. The meetings bring together members from the same neighborhood or town to get to know each other, share an update on the Strategic Plan and discuss what roles non-Jewish members should have in our Religious School and leadership positions. We have continued to hear a range of thoughts and feelings ranging from non-Jewish members being considered for all roles and responsibilities to some roles and responsibilities requiring that the member be Jewish. Some people expressed that non-Jewish members should be considered for Board positions but not for Religious School teacher positions; others expressed that it would be okay for non-Jewish members to be considered for Religious School teaching positions but not for Board positions. Some participants felt that it would be okay for non-Jewish members to be on the Board but not hold the positions of president or vice president of the congregation. While expressing strong feelings and a wide range of beliefs, feelings and ideas at the neighborhood meetings, participants made new connections and deepened old ones.

We are planning a congregational forum on Sunday, October 26. Our goals are to present feedback from the neighborhood meetings and provide another opportunity for folks to share what they are thinking about these questions, especially if they were not able to attend a neighborhood meeting. The Board's goal is to have as much information as possible in order to make a thoughtful and informed decision about the roles of our members, both Jewish and non-Jewish.

When faced with questions about which people have such strong and diverse opinions and feelings, it is unlikely that everyone will be completely satisfied when a decision is made. I hope, however, that each member will feel he or she has been heard and respected. Our goal is to move forward as a congregation in a positive way.

Throughout the day, ushers and greeters are needed to welcome members and guests to our building and to help people find the restrooms, the coat room, seats in the sanctuary and even page numbers in the prayer book. As part of our observance of the High Holy Days this year, we are partnering with Gift of Life Bone Marrow Foundation and conducting a bone marrow registry drive throughout the day on Yom Kippur. Donors between the ages of 18 and 60 and volunteers of all ages are needed to help with the bone marrow registry drive. Registry with the Gift of Life requires a simple cheek swab and a little paperwork. If you can help or want to register, please contact Jen Harriman at jennyharriman@gmail.com. To learn more, please visit www.yomkippurproject.org.

I look forward to seeing you during the High Holy Days, whether I find you in our sanctuary, helping with one of these endeavors or simply relaxing and meditating in our beautiful sanctuary gardens. L'Shanah Tovah Tikateivu. May you be inscribed for blessing in the Book of Life.

From the Religious School Director

Orly Mendelson Biggie

This year the High Holy Days fall later in September than last year. Rosh Hashanah is on the first day of the Jewish month of Tishrei and Yom Kippur is on the tenth day of Tishrei. I'm excited when Rosh Hashanah falls at the end of September because we have more time to explore the true meanings of these important holidays in Religious School!

Some of our teens will help us in Sunday morning Religious School through a new option that we are calling the BAGEL Program. This program gives our older students opportunities to mentor younger students. Teens will have the opportunity to participate in BAGEL (Breakfast, Arrangements, Go to mentees, Execute, Learn) about one Sunday each month. During their evening studies, the teens will learn about leadership and teaching with Andrew Kosak, a long-time Bet Ha'am teacher and professional educator. This initiative is one of the changes recommended in our strategic planning last year. It is designed to increase our teens' engagement in Religious School and to increase relationships between older and younger students.

Another event planned for our teens, also originating from our strategic planning process, is the second annual Shabbaton Retreat at Camp Ketcha on Friday and Saturday, January 23-24, 2015. We are also planning a trip to New York for this year's Confirmation Class. We are grateful for the generous grant funding from the Bronstein Foundation for these two teen learning activities and will share more information as our planning continues.

I wish everyone a very happy, healthy and peaceful new year.

You Could Help Save a Life!

Members of Congregation Bet Ha'am have an opportunity to save a life on Yom Kippur. Bet Ha'am will be partnering with the Religious Action Center and Gift of Life Bone Marrow Foundation to host a bone marrow donor recruitment drive. Joining the registry does not mean you will automatically be a donor. It means that you can be a potential donor until your sixty-first birthday. Since tissue type is inherited, a patient's best chance of finding a genetic match lies with donors of similar ethnicity.

The only way you will know if you can help save a life is by taking the first step and getting tested. Registration is simple; it consists of swabbing your cheek and completing a quick consent form. Eligible donors must be at least eighteen, no older than sixty and in general good health.

We need volunteers to help us make this drive a success. Please consider volunteering for one of the following shifts on Yom Kippur, October 4:

11:30-12:30

12:30-1:30

1:30-2:30

2:30-3:30

3:30-4:30

For more information about Gift of Life, please visit www.yomkippurproject.org. To volunteer or if you have questions about the Bet Ha'am drive, please contact Jennifer Harriman at jennyharriman@gmail.com.

Milestone Teacher Recognition

Please join us on Friday, September 12, at 6:30 PM for a special Shabbat service honoring Jane Snerson and Lynn Urbach. Jane has been teaching in our Religious School for fifteen years, and Lynn has been teaching for ten years. We are immensely grateful for the thousands of hours the two of them have volunteered to teach the children of Bet Ha'am, many of whom are now young adults. We hope you will join us to thank Jane and Lynn for their commitment and many contributions to our next generation.

Do you have information about any of the works of art at Bet Ha'am?

Adult Library News

KEEPING UP WITH YOUR RELIGIOUS SCHOOL STUDENTS

Did you know that the Bet Ha'm library is a great source for books about the topics to be covered in Religious School this year? While you are waiting for your child on Sunday mornings, we invite you to come to the library and browse or borrow books on such topics as the Jewish holidays, the prophets and their writings, Israel and Jewish communities around the world.

HIGH HOLY DAYS DISPLAY

Be on the lookout for a display of resource books you can read in our library or borrow as you prepare for the High Holy Days.

REQUEST FOR NEW COMMITTEE MEMBERS

The Library Committee usually meets on the third Thursday of the month from 10:30 AM to noon. Since Rosh Hashanah is on the third Thursday this year, the committee will meet on September 18. Please come just to listen or to bring your ideas on how to grow the library, plan events that the library might sponsor and/or suggest titles and authors. We welcome everyone to attend these meetings, perhaps join the committee or volunteer in the library, especially on Sunday mornings when Religious School is in session.

WHAT CONGREGANTS ARE READING

1. The Amazing Adventures of Kavalier & Clay by Michael Chabon (Fic Cha)
2. Stars of David: Prominent Jews Talk About Being Jewish by Abigail Pogrebin (E 184.37 Pog)
3. Miriam's Kitchen: A Memoir by Elizabeth Ehrlich (TX 724 Ehr)
4. The Bible With Sources Revealed by Richard Elliott Friedman (BS 1225.3 Fri)

DID YOU KNOW?

The white binders on the library shelves contain every newsletter since our founding. They are a great summary of the history of our congregation. Check them out.

THANKS TO

- Stephanie Cummings for her volunteer work in the library - always, and especially over the summer.
- Rabbi Bill Leffler for his recent donation of books to the collection.

A NOTE ABOUT OVERDUE BOOKS

One of the many features of the library's software is generating statistics, including how long library books have been overdue. We have never charged a fee for this less than stellar habit. However, if we did, the book that has been overdue longest would generate $35.35 (707 days @ 5 cents per day). If you borrowed that book or one of the others that is overdue, we urge you to return the book(s) as soon as possible, no questions asked. If you cannot find the book or know that you have lost it, please let us know by emailing dmlandau@hotmail.com.

PLEASE CONSIDER A DONATION TO THE ADULT LIBRARY when celebrating a simchah or remembering a loved one's yahrzeit. Your contribution will be used to purchase new books.

SHANAH TOVAH from the Library Committee!

Yizkor Memorial Booklet

During Yom Kippur services, we recite Yizkor (memorial prayers) and hold memories of our departed loved ones in our hearts.

We are continuing the Bet Ha'am tradition of printing and distributing a memorial booklet. As a courtesy, names that were included last year will be included again.

Please send your donation for listings to the office. If you forget, we will send you a reminder bill after the High Holy Days.

If you have new entries or changes, please complete this form and return it with your donation by Tuesday, September 23. The suggested donation is $18 per listing. You can email the information to teri@bethaam.org, bring your donation to the office or mail the form to Bet Ha'am at 81 Westbrook Street, South Portland, ME 04106.

Donations of Food

As in the past, after Rosh Hashanah services, we will be handing out grocery bags with lists of items needed by local food pantries. If you would like, please take a bag, fill it, and return it to Bet Ha'am on Yom Kippur.

Donations of Money

You can maximize the impact of your gift by writing a check for the amount you would have spent on food donations. This allows agencies to buy up to eight times the amount of food that you could purchase with the same amount of money. If you would like, please take a Food Drive envelope after Rosh Hashanah services.

Please make your checks payable to Congregation Bet Ha'am. You can write "High Holy Day Food Drive" on the memo line if you'd like. Please return your envelope to Bet Ha'am on Yom Kippur. We will send the money donated to both local food pantries and global agencies addressing hunger.

And of course, you can also support our food drive using both options. Thank you!

Featuring Bet Ha'am members Alan Davis, Emma Scott and Peter Scott and their friends
