

Died June 12, 1977
26 Sivan 5737

EULOGY_ Samuel Gerber, June 13, 1977

~~In~~ The Haphtorah, the weekly reading from the prophets tells us of Samuel's farewell address to the people following the appointment of Saul as King of Israel. Samuel resigned his office as Judge. In his speech, he said to the people, "I have served you from youth unto old age, and all the time ~~he~~ <sup>I have</sup> had served as the spiritual leader of the people ~~he~~ <sup>I have</sup> never used ~~his~~ <sup>my</sup> office for personal gain. He who can say I took an Ox from a man--who can say I took a donkey,- who can say I oppressed a man because of my position,-who can say I have ever taken a bribe from you. The prophet ~~gells~~ <sup>said declared that</sup> Isaac, no person ~~can~~ <sup>at</sup> point a finger ~~to~~ him and say he had abused his office as High Priest and judge of Israel.

Eulogy-Samuel Gerber

Page 2

This speech of the prophet applies to----- <sup>דברים 31:1-9</sup> ;

Captain Sam. <sup>IT</sup> ~~They~~ describes his relationship with his job and people of the city of Portland. his relationship with those he worked for and those he came into contact with in an official capacity. All can testify to ~~his~~ <sup>his</sup> honesty and high standards . With his fellow workers in the Fire Department, he was loyal to them and they

As his illness progressed these past few weeks, and as he entered into a twilight zone of consciousness he was heard to say, "Men get that hose and follow me. So deeply was he concerned with his job and his men. He was a very simple man - no airs. <sup>Capt Sam</sup> He had responsibilities & duties he carried them out without question. Rabbi Nechunya ben Haknah was asked by

Eulogy-Samuel Gerber

page 3

to him. In a job where confidence and reliability are essential,

Captain Sam supplied both. *

← Capt Sam <sup>also</sup> ~~also~~ was this type of man. ~~As his illness progressed~~ He never degraded his co-workers, his friends or family. He had only love and respect for his family.

Sam revered the memory of his mother and father. He spoke often about the love and respect for his Jewish heritage that they had had instilled in him ~~as~~

As ~~his illness progressed~~ <sup>he saw</sup> the inevitable end of all men drew drew near, he became clearly aware of relationship with the holy one, blessed be He. One day, when I saw him just before the end, he asked me מה עשית לפני ערב השנה הזאת, why is this night different from all other nights of the year. This question which Jewish boys and girls, men and women, have asked for thousands of years on the night of Passover, on the celebration of the Jews leaving Egypt--~~he asked me XXXXXXXX~~ What is evidence of his <sup>pure</sup> ~~simple~~ faith and belief in his creator - as he sought to find comfort in the moment of trial.

ה"קצק

Philip, Linda, Gloria and Nancy, you knew your father as only children can. And your own many cherished memories of him. The greatest honor and respect you can show for him is to live according to the ways of the religion he loved and respected. May G-d comfort you his children, grandchildren, his beloved sister Bertha and brothers Philip and Saul with all the mourners of Zion.

his students for his philosophy of life - he said to them 'nan de jidpa 'paaopa ke 'na'

All the days of my life I have never sought respect or honor through the degradation of ~~his~~<sup>my</sup> fellow man.