The Rabbi Speaks

We live in a fast moving world. The topics and occurrences which have attracted our attention this past year have been varied, serious and dramatic. We have been concerned with peace in Israel, with the security of our brethren living there, with a presidential resignation, with inflation, and truth in government, poverty and plenty, but to name a few concerns.

For some, it has been a year of pain and tragedy and disappointment. For others, it has been a year of good health, success, happiness and mazel.

As we begin a New Year, we realize that neither all the goodness nor all the agony which has been our lot has been our own making. The more we contemplate the more we must realize that there is a Creator who is actively involved in man's destiny. In our limited wisdom, we do not always understand the righteousness of God's ways; and it is difficult to accept that which we cannot understand. However, without that acceptance of the inexplicable, there cannot be intelligent meaning to life.

Faith in God adds the final touch when all else fails. Pain becomes more sufferable, tragedy more bearable, and we begin to believe that our efforts in building a better life will one day bear fruit. Despair turns to hope.

Our faith in God needs strengthen-

A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

It is my pleasure and honor once again to greet you during this High Holiday season. It is hard to believe that we have so quickly reached this important time of the year.

This coming year is going to truly be a very important one in Shaarey Tphiloh annals. We shall celebrate our 70th anniversary with a gala weekend. The publication of a journal, the burning of our mortgage, and the dedication of a new mikvah at Noyes Street. Our beloved rabbi, dependable Cantor, and dedicated office staff are truly ready for their appointed tasks.

Our Shul's leadership, Sisterhood, rejuvenated Brotherhood, and Young Couples' Club are all dedicated to making our celebration in particular, and this coming year in general, a memorable one. We have much to be proud of and hopefully our accomplishments this year will continue to heap glory on our beloved Shul.

On behalf of the officers, board of directors, Hazel and my family, a happy, healthy and prosperous New Year.

Sincerely,
 Saul Brenerman
