B'NAI B'RITH SUPPER CHAIRMAN—Mrs. Maurice Margolin, membership chairman of Twin City Chapter, B'nai B'rith, is supervising arrangements for the chapter's annual Paid-up Membership Supper to be served at 6:30 Monday evening, Oct. 22, at the Jewish Community Center. Mrs. William Goldstein is vice chairman, and also on the general committee are Mrs. Charles Cohen, Mrs. Philip Rosenthal, Mrs. Israel Winner, Mrs. Bernard Marcus and Mrs. Samuel Alperen. Serving on the program committee are Mrs. Irving Bell, chairman, Mrs. Samuel Ruttenberg and Mrs. Harold Miller. Mrs. Mollie M. Baker has charge of the supper and Mrs. Louis Deletetsky, of decorations.

The program, a takeoff on a popular television program, will be called "Queen for a Night," and Stanley Tatken will serve as master of ceremonies. An indoctrination of new members by chapter officers will be another feature of the evening.
