

Rabbi Berent to Be Awarded Honorary Degree by Nasson

Rabbi David Berent of Congregation Beth Jacob, Lewiston, will be the recipient of one of four honorary doctorates to be awarded at Nasson College commencement exercises at 2 p.m. Sunday, June 9.

Rabbi Berent, who was ordained in Switzerland in 1933 and who has been rabbi of Beth Jacob Congregation since 1940, is recognized as a distinguished leader in religious activities, social welfare work, and has served on Federal and State committees.

Others to be honored are Dr. Dwayne Orton, editor of Think and an educational consultant to the International Business Machine Corp.; Miss Nellie French Stevens, superintendent of the State School for Girls, Hallowell; and Dr. Alfred T. Hill, executive secretary for the Advancement of Small Colleges.

Dr. Orton will deliver the commencement address. He is a director of the American Arbitration Association and a trustee of Pratt Institute. Miss Stevens has been superintendent of the State School for Girls since 1935.

RABBI DAVID BERENT