

Cohen Is Elected President of Jewish Community Center

William Cohen, Lewiston attorney, was elected president of the Lewiston-Auburn Jewish Community Center at a meeting of the center's board of directors last night.

Other officers elected were Samuel White, Charles Polep, Murray Shultz, A. L. Cohen and Irving Bell, vice presidents; Israel Miller, treasurer; William Goldstein, financial secretary; and Mrs. Morris Baker, secretary.

Cohen, who replaces outgoing president Arthur N. Shapiro, has taken a prominent part in civic and center activities for several years. He is president of the Lewiston Band Boosters Club and a former chairman of the Beth Jacob Synagog. He is also a member of the New England Regional Board of the B'nai B'rith Anti-Defamation League.

The new officers will be installed at a supper meeting at the center May 10. A musical program titled "Overboard" will feature songs by Sam, Louis, Gold and

WILLIAM COHEN

Mrs. Samuel Hurwitz and will be set to Gilbert and Sullivan music.