LOWN HONORED AT

PORTLAND BANQUET

Phillip W. Lown of Brookline, Mass., an Auburn shoe manufacturer, was honored yesterday at a Portland dinner ending the two-day annual fall conference of the Maine Council of B'nai B'rith.

Lown, former Lewiston resident, was given a testimonial plaque for service and leadership. A shoe manufacturer and founder of the non-profit Camp Lown for children, he is a member of the Univ. of Maine Foundation, a B'nai B'rith governor and president of the National Friends of Hillel.

The presentation was made by Joseph L. Paradise, vice chairman of the National Hillel Council, and a director of the Anti-Defamation League's eastern region.
