

News From Summer Resorts

Maine

Mr. Walter Lippman and Mr. Alfred Kettner, of New York city, are at the Cowan bungalow at Peaks Island, Maine.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Stern, of New York city, have arrived for a month's stay in the camp at Cupsuptic Lake, Maine.

Mr. A. Denzer, of New York city, has taken possession of Home Camp, at Cupsuptic Lake, and with his friend, Mr. A. Guthman, of Atlanta, Ga., will remain there until August.

Dr. Henry M. Leipziger and Miss Pauline Leipziger are at Camp Quisisana, Centre Lovell.

Dr. and Mrs. H. Kaufman and their family, of 13 West 88th street, New York, are spending the summer at the Summit Springs House.

Far Rockaway

Arrangements are now being made to open the new Children's Haven on Hollywood avenue, to which institution the social service department of Temple Israel has devoted much of its attention this year. The building is being thoroughly renovated and within a short time it will be ready to receive the children.

New arrivals at the Tack-a-Pou-Sha House include Mr. and Mrs. M. Isaacs, Mr. and Mrs. C. Weimberg, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Jacoby, Mr. and Mrs. H. Hirschfield, Mrs. C. Lechinsky, Mrs. D. Meyers, Mrs. A. Pragerson, Mrs. Frank Snyder, Mrs. A. Levitt, Mr. and Mrs. Moe Harris, Mr. and Mrs. John Schneider, Miss Estelle Hirschfield, Milton R. Harris, Grover M. Herst, Lewis Collins, Joseph Barondess, H. J. Hennis, Mrs. Eva Tillisch and Milton R. Harris, of New York City.

Mr. Joseph Oshinsky and family, of 19 East 94th street, Manhattan, are residing on Atlantic avenue for the summer months.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Straus and their daughter, of 690 Putnam avenue, Brooklyn, are stopping at the Rocklein Cottage for the summer.

Mrs. A. Stein will give a Thé Dansant to-morrow, July 18, on the lawn of her residence on Bayview avenue, for the benefit of the Widowed Mothers' Fund Association.