
Society and Its Doings

THE postman has just delivered a communication to us, telling us of the marriage of Mr. T. D. Goldmark and Miss Sara Katharine Orr on January 15, in Brunswick, Maine, and we immediately recalled the pretty romance which culminated in the union of this happy pair. Last August, Mr. Goldmark was a guest at the Twin Mountain House in New Hampshire, and while there met Miss Orr. Reports have it that it was a case of love at first sight and the marriage which has just taken place is, of course, no surprise to the many friends of the young couple. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Adolph Goldmark of 808 West End Avenue, this city, and a brother of Mr. Godfrey Goldmark, formerly counsel to the Public Service Commission. He is an exporter and importer and treasurer of several Maine canning companies. The young bride is the daughter of Mr. Harmon M. Orr of Brunswick, Maine. Mr. and Mrs. Goldmark have left for a six-weeks honeymoon, which they plan to spend in California.

Another wedding of unusual interest will be the marriage on January 21 of Miss Myrelle Solomon, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K. Solomon of 226 West Seventieth Street, and Mr. Moses J. C. Kornblum, the son of Mr. J. Kornblum and the late Mrs. Kornblum of Pittsburgh, Pa. Dr. Nathan Krass will officiate at the ceremony, which will be followed by a reception, dinner and dance in the Louis XVI suite of the Hotel St. Regis. Mrs. Mortimer Elkan of the Hotel Biltmore, will be the matron of honor and Mr. Dillinger Livingston of Pittsburgh will be best man.

Nearly one thousand women Zionists were present at the reception and tea given at the Hotel Astor on January 15, in honor of Miss Henrietta Szold, who will sail for Palestine shortly to supervise the American Zionist Medical Unit in the Holy Land.

Rabbi Stephen S. Wise addressed the gathering, as did Mrs. A. H. Fromenson, who presided, Judge Julian W. Mack and Mrs. J. Sobel. Among the many well-known women present at the tea were Mrs. Jacob H. Schiff, Mrs. Mary Fels, Mrs. Stephen S. Wise, Mrs. N. Lindheim, Mrs. Peter Schwertzer and Mrs. Emil Weinheim.

A meeting of the Women's Progress Club was held at the home of Mrs. J. Schwartz, Riverside Drive and Seventy-first Street on the seventeenth of January.

There seems to be no end to the rumors and reports of engagements which come flowing in and clamoring for our somewhat bewildered attention. Among the latest is the announcement of the betrothal of Miss Florence Olive Robinson, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Robinson of 545 West 111th Street, and Mr. Harold Julian Levy, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Levy of 106 Morningside Drive.

Another engagement of the season of 1919-20 is that of Miss Mildred N. Rock, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin M. Rock of Broadview Avenue, New Rochelle, New York, and Mr. Frank C. Strobel, the son of Mrs. Herman C. Strobel of 262 West Ninety-first Street. The wedding will take place early next fall.

A reception in honor of Miss Belle Lazarus and Mr. Murray Sonnenschein, whose engagement was recently announced, was held one day last week at the Hotel Pennsylvania.

On the twenty-third of December, 1919, two young people were joined in wedlock by the Rev. Dr. Stephen S. Wise. The bride was Miss Elizabeth Drukker and the groom Mr. Michele Angelo Caparelli. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's father at 635 West 170th Street.

Dr. and Mrs. Stephen S. Wise were the hosts at a reception tendered by them at their home, 23 West Ninetieth Street, on January 2, in honor of Viscount Grey of Falloden, K. G., British Ambassador to America. Lord Grey was accompanied by Sir William Tyrrell, Under Secretary of the British Foreign Office. The guests of the afternoon included Judge and Mrs. Julian W. Mack, Judge and Mrs. Abram I. Elkus, Judge Benjamin N. Cardozo, Professor and Mrs. Richard N. Gottheil, Mrs. Mary Fels, Mr. and Mrs. Gregory Benenson of London, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Stroock, and Mr. and Mrs. Jacob de Haas.

Miss Cecelia Levy, whose engagement to Mr. Seppy I. Silberman was recently announced, has left for Des Moines, Iowa, to visit the parents of her fiance.

Rev. Dr. and Mrs. H. Pereira Mendes have been holding a series of receptions during the month for the members of their congregation. The last of these receptions will be held on Sunday, January 25. Prominent women of the Congregation presided over the tea-table in the afternoon, and in the evening from twenty to thirty juniors gathered for the musicales, which were given every Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kern of Louisville, Ky., are the guests of Mrs. Kern's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leopold Feist, at the Hotel Marie Antoinette. Mr. and Mrs. Kern sail soon for the Orient.

Mr. and Mrs. William Atkin of 1801 Seventh Avenue have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Adeline Atkin, to Mr. Samuel Siegel. The Rev. Jacob Kohn performed the ceremony, which took place at the Hotel Savoy. The bride was attended by Mrs. Herman Siegel, as maid of honor, and the Misses Lilyon Avrutine, Helen Weinstein, Rose Garfunkel, Anna Schwartz and Mildred Atkin, who acted as bridesmaids. Mr. Herman Siegel was best man and the ushers were Messrs. Mark Leboworth, Saul Rosenthal, Bully Avrutine, and Joseph Kanrich. Mr. and Mrs. Siegel will make their home in this city upon their return from Palm Beach, Fla.

Society and its Doings

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob D. Cohen of 1261 Madison Avenue announce the betrothal of their sister, Miss Sylvia Cohen, to Mr. Frank Cohen, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Cohen of 51 East Ninety-sixth Street.

The snow may fall and the wind may howl. New York's society folk are not the least bit perturbed, for the sunny south is beckoning. Grips are packed, the last purchases have been made and Society and his Wife are traveling southward. Among the latest deserters of these cold northern regions are Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Bernheim of 44 West Seventy-seventh Street who have gone to Cuba for a few weeks; Mr. and Mrs. William Stern of 40 West Ninetieth Street, who plan to spend the entire winter season in the South, and Mr. Sidney Haberman of 1404 Carroll Street, Brooklyn, who sailed on the Hamilton for Bermuda.

Mr. G. Klein of the Hamptons, West 117th Street, held an informal reception recently at his apartments in honor of his eighty-fifth birthday. He was surrounded by his children and his twenty grandchildren.

Mrs. Laura Salinger has announced that the marriage of her daughter, Elsa, and Mr. Zuker of White Plains, New York, will take place on the fifth of February. The young couple will make their home in White Plains.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Rosenfeld, the former Amy Dreyfus, whose marriage was celebrated very recently in Rochester, New York, are stopping at the Hotel Commodore in this city. After a visit to Boston, they will return to Rochester, where they are making their home.

One more bride in the ranks! And this time she is no other than Miss Ruth Sobel, the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Sobel of 410 Riverside Drive. On the fifteenth of January, at the Hotel Biltmore, Miss Ruth and Mr. William Fisher, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Fisher, were joined in wedlock by the Reverend Dr. Maurice H. Harris. The newlyweds sailed for Porto Rico for their honeymoon.

Nowhere else in the country, we believe, can so many social celebrities be seen together at one time as at the Metropolitan Opera House, the famous gathering place for rank and fashion. One glance at the roster of the Opera House reveals as boxholders many notables, conspicuous amongst them being the Jacob H. Schiffs, the James Speyers, Mr. Morton L. Schwartz, Mr. S. R. Guggenheim, Mr. Otto H. Kahn, Mrs. D. K. Weiskopt, Mr. M. Lissberger, Mr. B. Lissberg, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Sadowsky, Mr. Jack Phelps Sadowsky, Mr. and Mrs. Max H. Friedman, Mrs. A. F. Lauterbach, Mr. Otto Frank and Mr. Louis Beerman.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred S. Guggenheimer of 600 West End Avenue have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Claire Guggenheimer, to Mr. Alexis L. Schlesinger of Atlanta, Ga. It is rumored that the wedding will probably take place the early part of June.

A very pretty wedding took place at the Hotel Ritz-Carlton on the twelfth of January, when Miss Estelle Reiss, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elias Reiss, became the bride of Mr. Jerome Andrew Newman. Dr. Nathan Krass officiated at the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron J. Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Linick of Chicago were in New York recently visiting Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Zukor. They were guests at the wedding which was recently celebrated of the Zukor's pretty daughter, Mildred, and Arthur Loew, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Loew. Mr. and Mrs. Linick have left New York for Pasadena, Cal., where they will spend the winter.

Is Mr. D. Cupid not yet satisfied with all that he has accomplished this season? This indefatigable matchmaker is not content, evidently, for he triumphantly announces still another series of marriages and engagements. One of his recent successes is the wedding of Miss Stella Goodman, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Goodman of 25 Claremont Avenue, and Mr. Daniel Auslander, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Auslander of 650 West End Avenue. This marriage was solemnized at the Hotel St. Regis, with Miss Mildred Goodman acting as maid of honor for her sister and Mr. Louis N. Berman serving as best man. A dinner and dance followed the ceremony.

Mr. Benjamin Susskind of this city and Miss Frances Lear of New Haven, Conn., both of whom served in France during the war, were married on January 14 at the Hotel Majestic. After the ceremony the bride and groom left for Florida where they will spend their honeymoon. Upon their return to this city, they will reside at 100 St. Nicholas Avenue, until the completion of a home in Westchester, a gift to Mrs. Susskind from her husband's brothers.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schiff of 481 Jefferson Avenue, Brooklyn, will celebrate their Golden Wedding Anniversary on the 25th of January. A dinner and reception in their honor will be given at the Unity Club.

Mr. Charles Hein, who recently left for Paris, was the guest of honor at a very elaborate Japanese dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Frank at their residence, 575 West End Avenue. The hostess was attired in a Japanese costume, in keeping with the beautiful Japanese draperies with which the room was decorated. Japanese silver cigar lighters and bonbon boxes were the souvenirs. After the dinner, card tables were set up for those who desired to play bridge, while the other guests danced to the music of a wonderful orchestra. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin S. Wise, Mrs. Frank Hein, Mr. and Mrs. Irving L. Ernst, Mr. Edwin Sheets, Mr. Edward Leroy Helms, Dr. T. Lecraft Hein, Mr. George Sheetz, Mr. Harold Rothschild and Mr. George Thedford, Jr.

The ballroom of the Hotel Commodore was the scene of a very pretty wedding on January 19, when Miss Mildred Y. Heller, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isidor I. Heller of 801 West End Avenue, became the wife of Mr. Isaac Miller. The Rev. Dr. Herbert Goldstein officiated at the ceremony. The bride was attended by Mrs. Alfred K. Beer, her sister, and Mrs. Joseph Krescal, as matrons of honor. The Misses Fay Heller, Justine Fox, Florence Keller and Ruth London acted as bridesmaids. Mr. David Miller was the best man and the ushers were William Vorhaus, Jack Blitzer, William Wasch and Jess Krulewitch. Mr. and Mrs. Miller will spend their honeymoon at Palm Beach, Fla.

New York is having many visitors these past few weeks. We have just learned that Mr. and Mrs. Morris Tobias and their son Henry of Avondale, Cincinnati, are guests at the Hotel Astor. By the way, the Tobiases recently announced the engagement of their son, Charles, to Miss Charlotte Westheimer, a niece of Mrs. Abraham Abrahams of 875 Park Avenue. Miss Westheimer was a recent visitor at the Abrahams home and was lavishly entertained during her stay.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Guthman and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Schelt of Cincinnati are also at the Astor, while the register of the Hotel Knickerbocker records the arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Mendel and Mrs. Helen Shield.

Announcement has been made by Mr. and Mrs. H. Cahn of the engagement of their daughter, Miss Helene Cahn, to Mr. Mandel Gumberts, the son of Dr. L. S. Gumberts of Chicago.

The marriage of Miss Jean Jacobi, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Jacobi of 552 West End Avenue, and Mr. Harold E. Beckman, formerly a lieutenant in the United States Army, was solemnized on January 19, in the ballroom of the Hotel Gotham, with the Rev. Solomon Lowenstein officiating. Miss Linda Ullman was the bride's only attendant. Mr. Mervin Baer was best man. A reception, dinner, and dance followed the ceremony.