

CHILDREN'S PARTY AT THE SYNAGOGUE

Pupils of Sunday School Participate in an Excellent Program

A party was tendered the children of Beth Israel synagogue on Sunday afternoon from three to six by the Hebrew Ladies society, of which Mrs. Morris S. Povich is president, in observance of Purim, the festival of Lots, celebrated in thanksgiving from the destruction threatened by Haman.

An entertainment was presented, almost all participating being pupils of Mrs. Joseph I. Smith's Sunday school. Mrs. Smith was author of a Purim playlet given by the children. The story of King Ahasuerus, Queen Esther, Mordecai and Haman was read by three of the advanced pupils, Miss Ruth Cohen, Miss Isabel Gediman and Miss Sylvia Kutz. The little children taking part in the program with songs, piano solos, stories and recitations, were Ruth, Edward and Gerald Lee Cogan, Ida Cohen, Eleanor Gediman, Rhoda Kutz, Robert Levin, Albert and Donald Povich, Ann Beryl Schwartz, Bladen Smith, Stanley and David Supovitz. Others at the party included Sidney Cronsberg, Sylvia Cohen, Alvin Gediman, Milton Gediman, Riva Clvia Greenblatt, Edwin Supovitz, Edward Cohen, Miss Emily Gediman, Miss Ida Lindenberg and Miss Sarah Lindenberg.

Games were played, and fruit salad, cocoa, and haman tashen (Haman's hats) were served. Table decorations were blue and white.
