

MENSCH-POVICH

WEDDING SUNDAY

Bath Young Lady Becomes Bride at Beth Israel Synagogue at Old Orchard

Miss Dorice Povich of this city, daughter of Mrs. Rosa Povich of this city and the late Nathan Povich, became the bride of Benjamin P. Mensch, of Washington, D. C., son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Mensch of that city, at an impressive ceremony Sunday afternoon shortly after six in the Beth Israel synagogue, Old Orchard, Rev. Abraham Miller of Portland officiating. The bride was given in marriage by her eldest brother, Morris E. Povich. The maid of honor was Miss Goldie Povich, a sister of the bride, and the best man was Samuel A. Mensch of Washington, D. C., a brother of the groom.

The bride was attractively gowned in ivory satin, fashioned on princess lines. Her simple tulle veil was caught at sides and back with orange blossoms. She carried a Bible shower with gardenias and lilies-of-the-valley.

The maid of honor wore pink net over taffeta and carried a bouquet of pink roses and delphinium. Ushers were Shirley L. Povich, of Washington, D. C. head usher, Julius J. Povich, Abraham Povich, Bernard I. Povich, all of this city, brothers of the bride. Marcus D. Mensch and Maurice Mensch, both of Washington, D. C., brothers of the bridegroom. Over 150 persons from Bath, Boston, Washington, D. C., New York and elsewhere gathered in the synagogue, decorated with palms and gladioli, for the wedding.

A reception and dinner in La Reine hotel followed the wedding.

During the night Mr. Mensch and his bride left for a cruise in southern waters. The bride's traveling costume was of beige and brown. After Sept. 1, Mr. and Mrs. Mensch will be at home at the Ritz Apartments in Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Mensch is one of the most popular young women in this city, where the Povich family has made its home for many years. She is a graduate of Morse high school and of the Emerson school of oratory, Boston.

Mr. Mensch is a graduate of George Washington University, Washington, D. C., and is employed in the Riggs National Bank in that city.
