
GOLDSTEIN'S RECEPTION.

Thursday evening in celebration of the ninth anniversary of his marriage, Mr. Goldstein gave a reception to the Knight's of Pythias, who assembled at his cosy home shortly after the close of the evening session of the lodge. Bright fires gleamed in the open grates, giving a cheerful welcome in the stormy night. When the prettily furnished rooms were quite filled, Mr. Clapp played several piano solos, very nicely, after which refreshments consisting of sandwiches, creams cake, and fruit, were brought in. Mr. Isaacson proved a pre-eminently proper toast-master and becomingly attended to the duties of his position. Dr. Ragon, as usual, provided fun for the whole, and as auctioneer succeeded in bringing up the bids for a tongue Sandwich to $8.75.

Mr. Hogan presiding at the piano accompanied the Pythian quartette in several selections which were enthusiastically received.

During the day a very elegant Eastlake Sideboard had been sent to Mr. and Mrs. G. from unknown donors, in memory of their anniversary. This was much admired by the guests as a superior article of furniture.

After several hours of merriment and unrestricted social enjoyment the party homeward went wishing the happy couple many happy returns of the day.
