

BUSINESS RESUMED.—Bath's Hebrew colony resumed business again Thursday morning after a three days' vacation to celebrate the arrival of the New Year. The services were the most devout ever held in the city. Yom Kippur, the day of atonement, is the next religious holiday and will be observed next Thursday.