

The Naomi Club, composed of upwards of 50 Jewish girls, observed the first anniversary of the club on Monday evening with a celebration in Foresters' Hall. It was also the opening of the services in connection with Mercy Week which is being observed all over the country in the interest of funds for the war sufferers. During the evening there was an interesting program of vocal and instrumental music and addresses, dancing and refreshments. The club is for charitable and social purposes. The officers are: President Mrs. Morris Povich; vice-president, Mrs. Samuel Mack; secretary, Lena Mikelsky; treasurer, Ruth M. Gedlman.
