

The girls of the Naomi club were entertained by the young gentlemen of "The Happy Twenty" Sunday evening at the home of Horatio Mikelsky. The social committee consisting of Meyer Gordon, Jacob Feldman and Horatio Mikelsky was in charge of the evening's festivities, games, Victrola selections and dancing enjoyed after which a luncheon was served. At a business meeting previously it was announced that in the Liberty loan drive the 14 active members had subscribed $1,050, an average of $75 per member.
