

RABBI PRICE SPEAKS TO BATH'S Y. M. H. A.

Rabbi Samuel Price of Springfield, Mass., a lecturer of prominence in Judaism, spoke before the recently organized Young Men's Hebrew Association at Music hall Sunday afternoon at three. He was met in Brunswick by Joseph Solovich, Hyman H. Abromson and Henry Gediman representing the Y. M. H. A. and Miss Celia Solovich representing the Y. W. H. A. After the address a drive for members was made resulting in the addition of 47 to the rolls. Plans are being made for the renting of a hall to be used for social and lecture purposes and it is expected that a club house will be built in the near future. Election of officers resulted as follows:

Henry Gediman, president; Arthur Brown, vice president and secretary; Hyman H. Abromson, treasurer; Arthur Miller, financial secretary; L. Abramson, Robert Goldstein, David Lavin, Rev. Charles Arik and Samuel Mack directors.
