

PASSOVER PROGRAM AT THE SYNAGOGUE

Junior and senior departments of the Beth Israel Sunday school presented their postponed Passover program in the vestry of the synagogue Sunday afternoon.

A playlet, "The Vision of Abraham," compiled and written by Mrs. Joseph I. Smith, Sunday school instructress, was presented by the little children. The parts were as follows: The Prologue Speakers, Sonny Cogan and Donald Povich; Abraham, Albert Povich; Moses, Ruth Cogan; Priest, Ida Cohen; Old Woman, Eleanor Gediman; Little Boy, Bladen Smith. The playlet included a paraphrase of the Ten Commandments in verse.

The senior department presented "The Silver Cup," a Passover phantasy, which was well done by the following: Hannah, Emily Gediman; her son, Benjamin, Robert Levin; her husband, Edward Cohen; her neighbor, Isabel Gediman; the Stranger, Ruth Cohen.

A recitation and song by Ida Cohen, a piano solo by Ruth Cogan, and a violin solo by Edward Cohen completed the program. Miss Emily Gediman, in behalf of the children, presented Mrs. Smith with a beautiful bouquet of Spring flowers.

A committee headed by Mrs. Morris Povich served refreshments to the children.
