

Miss Bessie F. Greenblatt, principal of Weeks street grammar, was among those attending the laying of the cornerstone for the new Beth Abraham Synagogue, Laurel avenue and Main streets, Auburn, on Sunday afternoon, when city officials joined with Rabbi Samuel Spivak, of the synagogue, Rabbi Miller, of Portland, and others in commemorating the occasion. Miss Greenblatt passed the week end in Auburn as a guest of Miss Dorothy Halperin, a former schoolmate at Gorham Normal.