

BATH B'NAI BRITH OPENS ITS SEASON

First Meeting of the Fall Held Wednesday Evening at the Synagogue

The first meeting of the Bath B'nai Brith auxiliary of the season was held Wednesday of last week in Beth Israel Synagogue. Miss Dorothy Rubin, president, presided and reports of the secretary and treasurer were read. It was voted to change the date of meetings from the third Thursday of each month to the second Monday. Miss Evelyn Petlock, secretary, was appointed a committee to purchase Auxiliary pins.

Mrs. Isadore Singer, chairman of the program committee, submitted an outline of the year's program. September will include a book review, October a B'nai Brith speaker; Nov. 2 one act play; December, fireside discussion; January, Prof. Quiz contest; February, study of the Jewish situation; March, book review; April, musical; May, fireside discussion; June, convention report.

Mrs. Harold Rubin read historical articles of interest on the Jewish holidays of Rosh Hoshana, the New Year, and Yom Kippur, the Fast day. The Misses Evelyn Petlock and Ada Y. Greenblatt were appointed to prepare a set of by-laws for the Auxiliary ready for the October meeting. A penny collection for the flower fund was taken.

The program of the evening consisted of a review of Thornton Wilder's play, "Our Town," by Miss Ada Y. Greenblatt. Guests at the meeting were Miss Frances Gordon of Roxbury, Mass., Miss Louise Miller of Boston and Mrs. Arthur Miller of Bath.
