

B'NAI BRITH AUXILIARY ELECTS ITS OFFICERS

Meeting Held Monday Evening at the Beth Israel Synagogue

Miss Ada Y. Greenblatt was unanimously elected president of the Bath B'nai Brith Auxiliary, No. 248, at the annual election of officers at the well attended March meeting Monday evening in the vestry of Beth Israel synagogue. She succeeds Miss Evelyn Petlock, who did not wish to be considered a candidate for reelection. Miss Greenblatt served last year as secretary, an office in which Miss Petlock also served before becoming president. Miss Minnie Brown was elected secretary.

Miss Mary Arik was reelected vice president, Miss Emily Gediman was reelected treasurer, and Mrs. Samuel Levin was reelected a trustee for one year.

Other officers elected to serve the Auxiliary for the ensuing year follow: Miss Evelyn Petlock, mistress, a position held by the retiring president, Miss Jeannette Miller, sentinel; Miss Esther J. Petlock, guide; Mrs. Morris H. Cohen, guardian; Mrs. David S. Cogan, flower fund; Miss Greenblatt, publicity. Officers will be installed in April.

Miss Greenblatt and Miss Evelyn Petlock were elected delegate and alternate respectively to the District No. 1 convention in Worcester, Mass., May 17-19.

Following the business meeting a Purim party was held. Traditional Purim refreshments were served, and gifts were exchanged. A reading concerning the holiday was given by Mrs. Isadore Singer. Hostesses were Mrs. Jacob Smith and Miss Pauline Mikelsky.

Mrs. Louis M. Silverman presented for use in the synagogue a set of dishes.

Announcement was made that a degree team from Portland will be present Thursday evening to install the officers of the men's lodge.

A special meeting of the Auxiliary will be held the latter part of this month.
