

A farewell party was given Sam Fuhr, former sales manager at the Rogers Jewelry store on Center street, on Sunday night at the Beth Israel Synagogue on Washington street. Mr. Fuhr has been called to service in the army and left for his home in Rockville, Conn., where he will pass a few days before reporting for induction. The party was given by B'nai B'rith lodge and a very pleasant evening is reported.