

MISS EVELYN PETLOCK WEDS LEWISTON MAN

Bath Girl Becomes Bride of Abe Merson Thursday Evening

Miss Evelyn Petlock of this city became the bride of P. F. C. Abe Merson, U. S. A., of Lewiston, at a ceremony solemnized in Beth Israel synagogue Thursday afternoon at five. Rev. Abraham May officiated at the single ring service in the presence of the immediate families of the bride and groom. Attending the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Louis Petlock of this city, the former a brother of the bride; and Mr. and Mrs. Hyman Merson of Lewiston, the former a brother of the groom.

The bride wore a royal blue dress, with a small hat and veil to match, and black accessories. She carried a small Bible with a shower of gold ribbons and yellow button chrysanthemums.

A reception followed the ceremony and during it Mr. and Mrs. Merson left on a week's wedding trip.

Mrs. Merson is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Petlock of 22 Franklin street, this city. She is a graduate of Morse high school, where she was active in dramatics, and since graduation has been employed in the law office of Hon. John P. Carey, Jr. She is a past president of the B'nai B'rith Auxiliary.

Mr. Merson is a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Merson of Lewiston. He is a graduate of Lewiston high school and immediately prior to entering the service was employed at the Bath Iron Works Corp. He is at present stationed with the United States Army Air Corps at Gunter Field, Ala.

Out of town guests at the ceremony included Mr. and Mrs. Harry Geller, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Geller, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Hyman Merson, Mrs. J. Burns, the latter a sister of the groom, of Lewiston; Harry Day of Lewiston, an uncle of the groom; and Mrs. Irving Seigal and little daughter, Ann Judith, of Providence, R. I. Mrs. Siegal is a sister of the bride. Telegrams were received at the synagogue from many friends of the couple and were read during the reception by Mr. Carey.
