Mr. Zimelman has a liturgical tenor voice and has studied music under the tutelage of Prof. Jacob Rosemaring of Montreal, Canada. Mr. Zimelman has for the last four years conducted the choir at the Sharey Tphiloh synagogue in Portland where his father is cantor.

Synagogues throughout the world began to celebrate at sundown Wednesday the beginning of the Jewish New Year—Rosh-Hashana — 5,714. This holiday ushers in a 10-day period of penitence.

The Shofar, the rams horn, was sounded in the synagogue, announcing the Jewish New Year.

Services began Wednesday at 7 p. m. and will continue Thursday and Friday mornings at 8.30 a. m.
