

Beth Israel Sisterhood Has Chanuka Party

The Sisterhood of Beth Israel synagogue entertained the entire congregation with a Chanuka party and white elephant sale Tuesday evening at the synagogue.

Lapkes, (potato pancakes) specially prepared during the Festival of Lights, were served to members of the congregation.

Abraham L. Kramer, president of the congregation, chanted prayers during the lighting of the Chanuka candles. Assisting him were Jacob Goldstein and Morris Povich.

Mrs. Louis Petlock was general chairman of arrangements for the affair assisted by Mrs. Sam Levine, president of the Sisterhood.

Arrangements for the white elephant sale were made by Mrs. Sam Praver with Mr. Praver and Frank Freeman serving as auctioneers.
