

The following guests are at the hotel spending their vacation: Mrs. Samuel Colitz and family of Pawtucket, R. I., Dr. and Mrs. Irving of Providence, R. I., Mr. Kaufman of Fitchburg, the Misses Rose Goldblatt, Sarah and Anna Gliner, Sarah Spack, Bessie Edelstein, Yetta Kaplan, Elizabeth Ginsberg, Alice Berkowitz, Gertrude Adelman, Anna Wolfson, and Messrs. H. Cohen, H. Isman, Barney Solomon, B. Sapers, M. Sapers, H. Michaels, Harry Rovich and J. Green.

BANGOR, ME.

The Gammapi Club afforded the friends of Miss Lillian Radchlen an enjoyable evening, in the form of a surprise party at her home, 64 Boyd St. She was the recipient of many gifts, and after singing, dancing and games the party broke up at a late hour.

* * * *

Bangor's younger set have joyously welcomed back to their circle, Miss Marlon Byer, who spent the winter with relatives in Massachusetts.

BATH, ME.

Among the newcomers at the Grand View House, "Dad" Channell's Camp, are: Mr. and Mrs. Bornstein and daughters, Mrs. Abrams, Mrs. Cohen, David Baer, Miss Pauline Politsky and Edward Caplan of Roxbury, and William Katz of Springfield. The first entertainment of the season was held last Sunday evening which was enjoyed by all.

Miss Ruth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. Gediman, was married to Joseph Mack of Brunswick, by Rev. Charles Arik, last Monday evening. The bride's gown was of silver net over white satin with beaded trimmings, and she carried a bouquet of bride's roses. Miss Eva Mack was maid of honor, and Henry L. Gediman was best man. The ushers were: Arthur and Julius Gediman, brothers of the bride; Jack, William and Samuel Gediman of Boston, and Isaac Polby of Brunswick. Many out of town guests were present. After an extended trip to Boston and New York, Mr. and Mrs. Mack will reside in this city.

PLYMOUTH

David Orlov of Roxbury, is in town visiting relatives and friends.

SPRINGFIELD

Election of officers of the New Era Club was held at its rooms on Tuesday evening, June 26th. After an interesting and keen contest the following officers were elected: President, Maurice Wolfson; vice-pres., Henry Karl Binsky; treas., Benjamin Kaufman; fin. secy., Raphael Albert; rec. secy., Benjamin Zlotnik; auditor, Israel Binsky. Installation of officers was held at an open meeting last Sunday. The new president called a meeting of the newly elected officers at his home, where the plans for the coming six months were thoroughly discussed. Chairmen of all committees were appointed. Private M. J. Berwald, of the United States Army, spoke at the meeting in an effort to secure recruits for the Army. The retiring president, Alfred Abrahams, also spoke.

WRENTHAM

Last Saturday evening, at Weinstein's new hotel, Miss Ivantosh and Mr. Yarashofsky of Providence, R. I., were married. The ceremony was performed on the lawn adjoining the hotel, after which dancing was enjoyed. All the guests of the hotel were invited.

A meeting of the Utopian Club of Boston, was held at the hotel last Sunday, under the leadership of Max Rabinowitz and Israel Ruby.