Salem, and prior to leaving for Camp Hancock, Ga., addressed a large audience on the main street in front of the Liberty Cottage. Mr. Ranen also discussed the welfare of Jewish boys at various camps with Mr. Louis E. Kirstein, executive member of the Jewish Welfare Board. He expressed himself as very much pleased with the splendid showing made by workmen's organizations, as he is an executive member of the Salem Independent Workmen's Circle, and at the time of his departure that organization subscribed to over $20,000 worth of Liberty Bonds.

SHARON

Among the guests at the Sharon Inn are: Dr. Gerber, Mr. Bloom, Mrs. Saltman, Mrs. Rubin, Mrs. Levine, Miss Saltman and Mr. and Mrs. Lofow.

BATH, ME.

The "Happy Twenty" held an enjoyable social gathering last Sunday at the home of Horatio Mikelsky. The Naomi Girls were the guests. It was announced at their meeting that the Happy Twenty had gone "over the top" in its $1000 Liberty Bond campaign. Final results as reported by Herbert W. Gediman, the president, showed $1050 subscribed by the fourteen active members of the club, an average of $75 per member.
