

Bath, Me., News Notes

By SOPHIE G. GREENBLATT

Officers of Beth Israel Congregation were installed Sunday evening in the vestry of Beth Israel Synagogue Samuel Pfeffer of Portland serving as installing officer. The officers are Jacob Goldstein, president; Abraham Miller, vice-president; David S. Cogan, financial secretary; Morris H. Cohen, recording secretary; Morris S. Povich, treasurer; Sam Prawer, Louis M. Silverman and Mr. Cogan, trustees. With Mr. Pfeffer on the installation committee were Mr. Cogan, Solomon K. Greenblatt and Mr. Prawer. Vocal solos were sung by Mr. Gedman and by Mr. Cohen, and dancing was also on the program.

Mr. and Mrs. Isadore Singer entertained recently in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Joseph Rubin, whose wedding took place September 8 in Cohasset, Mass., and who are now making their home in this city, where Mr. Rubin has opened law offices. Mrs. Rubin is the former Miss Dorothy Muriel Golden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert A. Golden of Cohasset and like Mr. Rubin, is a graduate of Boston University School of Law.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. David S. Cogan, Dr. and Mrs. Harold I. Goldman of Freeport, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel R. Korolick, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Prawer, Dr. and Mrs. Jacob Smith, and Dr. and Mrs. Joseph I. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Solomon K. Greenblatt announce the engagement of their daughter, Sophie Gertrude, to Albert Friedman of Augusta.

Miss Greenblatt was valedictorian of the class of 1929, Morse High School; is a member of the National Honor Society; of the degree team of West Bath Grange, the Portland Y. W. H. A. Business Girls' Club, the executive committee of the Bath High School Alumni Association; is a corporator of the Patten Free Library of Bath; and has been Lieutenant of Pine Tree Troop, No. 1, Girl Scouts of America, since its organization, in which she played a part. For the last seven years she has been on the news staff of the Bath Daily Times.

Mr. Friedman is a son of Mrs. Ida Friedman of 6 Spruce street, Augusta, and the late Oscar Friedman. He is a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Battler of Randolph. Mr. Friedman was graduated from Cony High School in 1926 and is engaged in business in Augusta.
