

Victor Greenbaum (nee Fanny Frank).

Dr. Stephen S. Wise spoke on Zionism at the home of Mrs. Louis E. Kirshtein, Commonwealth Ave., last Wednesday. After the talk tea was served. Quite a gathering was present as many who were not won over to the cause went for a truly educational reason.

The rooms of the Elysium Club at 215 Huntington Ave. are now open again for Red Cross workers. More should avail themselves the privilege of working for the boys "over there." Make it your duty to go!

The Liberty Loan bonds will soon be on sale. It is the duty of women as well as men to stand by "Uncle Sam." Of course, you will!

BOSTON

Jacob H. Nottenburg of the West End, formerly connected with the faculty of Merchant Arts High School at this city, is at present head of the printing department of the Waltham High School. Mr. Nottenburg is an active member of the Junior Congregation Adath Jesburam and of the Junior Auxiliary, Beth Israel Hospital.

CAMBRIDGE

Mr. A. Granoff, president of the Young Friends Hebrew Association, Messrs. J. Spector, J. Rouffa, C. Greenstein and Frank Dubinsky of Providence, R. I., will be given a rousing send-off, prior to their leaving for Palestine on March 25th.

DORCHESTER

Acknowledgment

The Jewish Advocate acknowledges receipt of $11.99 for the Jewish War Supporters, collected at an informal dinner given in honor of the engagement of Miss Pauline, daughter of Mrs. M. M. Loto of 6 Levant St., to Charles Gordon. The amount has been forwarded to the Peoples' Relief Committee.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ellis announce the wedding of their daughter Miss Lena, to Samuel Baker, Sunday March 17th.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Quint (nee Saule B. Beck) of 17 Browning Ave., are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, Rosalind Eunice, March 10th.

EAST BOSTON

Mr. and Mrs. J. Aronson of 20 Princeton St., announce the engagement of their daughter Miss Fanny to Daniel Kagno of Roxbury, Sunday March 24.

EVERETT

Mr. George Gale of 128 Florence St., has enlisted in the Aviation Corps and left Monday noon for San Antonio, Texas. Mr. Gale was given a farewell party at his home by his friends and relatives, who presented him with a wrist watch and several other gifts.

MALDEN

Mr. and Mrs. R. Horlick of St. Louis (nee Frances Lowin of this city), announce the birth of a baby boy, on Friday, March 8th. Mother and baby are doing well.

ROXBURY

Robert Levenson of Normandy St. this district, has come into fame as a song-writer. His latest song is "Belgian Rose" which is making a country-wide hit. Levenson is a Boston Latin '13 and a Harvard man, and is at present with the Quartermaster's Depot in Cambridge. The "Belgian Rose" song is an appeal to the Belgians that we, this glorious country, have our hands ready to protect them. The Boston Sunday Post recently published his song thus accepting it as one of the best songs of the day.

Mr. and Mrs. I. Abramson of 21 Schuyler St., celebrated the fourth birthday of their daughter Rosaline, on Sunday, March 24, at the Hebrew Ladies' Home for Aged. There were many relatives and friends present and an enjoyable time was spent by all.

Miss Edna, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Adelson of 29 Homestead St., was married to Hyman B. Finestone of Dorchester, on Sunday, March 19th. Rev. J. Karlsberg officiated.

Miss Ida Dorothy Lewis was married to Israel Ligham last Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Ligham will be at home after April 1st at Worcester.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Ludwig and Mrs. M. B. Bloom of 186 Ruthven St., have returned from a pleasant stay at Atlantic City.

FALL RIVER

A reception was tendered Fred Phillips of Medford, prior to his entering into the service, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. Pritzker. Mr. Phillips was accompanied from Boston by Messrs. Joe and Dave Polsky, Joe Lederman and David Helaso. There was present from this city the Misses Frances Pritzker, Jessie Kaufman, Grace Israel, Pearl Feinberg, Gertrude Novack, Sadie Granofsky, Edna Maker, and Messrs. Charles Novack and Al. Granofsky. The house was patriotically decorated and a "Hoover" luncheon was served.

LAWRENCE

Sergt. Al Brody, on the eve of his departure to resume his duties at Camp Gordon after spending a short furlough with his mother, was given a pleasing send-off last Sunday at the Y. M. H. A. rooms by about a hundred friends from Haverhill and this city. An enjoyable program was arranged by the committee composed of Mitchell Kolsky and Abe Fishman, as follows: Song and dance, Cy Hartman; vocal solo, Robert Kramer of Haverhill; song and dance, Mae Orenstein; solo, Joe Rosenberg; stories and vocal solo, Jack Melnicoff; vocal duet, Hilda Sarkin and Rob. Kramer. Miss Elizabeth Jacobs and Abe Fishman presided at the piano. Refreshments were served. Following the entertainment, Sergt. Brody was given a rousing cheer and send-off, and addressed the gathering thanking them for their kindness and expressing the hope that he will be back with them again when the war is over.

Abraham Silverman of Boston, and Miss Jennie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Fox, were married last Sunday evening at the home of the bride, 23 Brendfield St. David Fox, brother of the bride, was best man. The bride was attended by Miss Boris Grobosky of Quincy, as maid of honor, and the Misses Doris Smith and Sadie Fox as bridesmaids.

Mr. and Mrs. David Oppenheim are rejoicing over the birth of a baby girl. Mother and daughter are doing nicely.

Miss Sarah Fishman has returned home after spending two weeks with friends at Providence, R. I.

The marriage of Miss Alice Gens and Louis Tepper was recently announced.

The marriage of Miss Alice Gens and Louis Tepper was recently announced.

The marriage of Miss Alice Gens and Louis Tepper was recently announced.

Pianos tuned, $2.00, repairing and polishing, JOSEPH BERNHARDT, 33 Walker St., West Somerville Tel. Somerville #191-W. Reference, Mr. Harry E. Whittemore, Supervisor of Music.

Dr. and Mrs. Siskind are on an extended trip through the West in celebration of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary.

WINTHROP

At the celebration of the Pidyam Haken held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Haskell Bravman of Hermon St., M. P. Rosenthal made an appeal for the Jewish War Relief Fund, and $5 was raised.

PROVIDENCE, R. I.

The forty-sixth annual ball of the Ladies' Union Aid Society was held last Wednesday evening.

Last Thursday evening, Col. Anthony Dwyer, a member of the Governor's staff, addressed the Y. M. U. A. at the Hebrew Institute, in place of Governor R. L. Beekman, who was detained on account of illness. Col. Dwyer spoke on "Our Duty in This War."

Plans have been completed for the formation of a Rhode Island fraternal insurance association to be known as the Touro Fraternal Association.

Last Thursday evening, Philip V. Marcus made an address before the Menorah Society of Brown University.

BATH, ME.

The Happy Twenty held an interesting meeting last Sunday at the home of Horatio A. D. Mikelsky. The new president, Herbert W. Goddman, presided. A social committee was appointed as follows: Charles Mikelsky, Jacob Feldman and H. A. D. Mikelsky. The several members who are away from home are going to be well cared for during the Passover holiday. After the meeting, a pleasant social hour was spent and a collation was served.

UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT GRANTS LEAVE OF ABSENCE FOR ZIONIST WORK

A pleasing indication of the Government's attitude and sympathy toward the Zionist movement is reflected in the instance of Harry O. Sandberg of Roxbury who is engaged in the promotion of foreign trade in the Boston office of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, United States Department of Commerce.

Because of Mr. Sandberg's familiarity with conditions in Washington and Baltimore and his interest in Jewish affairs, he was asked to take charge of the propaganda work in connection with the Palestine Restoration Fund in those cities. Mr. Sandberg took up the matter with his Chiefs in Washington requesting leave of absence for several months to assist in the work of the

DOROTHY FRANCES DIAMOND TEACHER OF SINGING
 201 Huntington Chambers, Boston
 BEATRICE S. DIAMOND, PIANO

Restoration Fund. Despite the pressure of work in the Boston Office and the lack of properly trained men for foreign trade promotion work, the Washington office granted the request for several months leave on behalf of the Zionist movement.

Mr. Sandberg leaves on Sunday and will spend several days at the Zionist headquarters in New York before proceeding to take charge of the work in Washington.

WAR RELIEF DRIVE UNDER WAY IN MALDEN

Upwards of 500 people attended the meeting of the Jewish War Relief Committee last Sunday at the Daniels School Hall and the local campaign to raise $25,000 this week for the cause was launched.

Upwards of $1000 was subscribed at the hall and a committee of fifteen captains was appointed who will make a house to house canvass during the week on the work. They are: Samuel Horlick, A. B. Cibul, Dr. S. H. Slobodkin, Dr. George Kramer, Dr. Samuel Hoberman, Barnett Maker, Frank Sherman, Louis Sherman, J. L. Kotzen and Isaac Endler.

At the meeting Meyer H. Slobodkin presided and the speakers were Harris Selig who spoke on "The Suffering of the People of Poland and Russia," and Dr. S. Levin on "The Future of Nations Following the War."

A large clock has been erected at the corner of Bryant and Cross Sts., which will inform the residents of the progress of the campaign. The executive committee will meet nightly at the local Y. M. H. A. quarters.

I. O. B. B. INFORMAL DANCE
 Proceeds for Soldiers and Sailors Welfare League

Massachusetts Lodge, No. 27, B'nai B'rith, is holding an informal dance at the Hotel Brunswick on Wednesday evening, March 20th. The proceeds of this dance is for the benefit of the Soldiers and Sailors Welfare League of the I. O. B. B.

A number of boys from Camp Devens, Harvard Radio School, Commonwealth Pier, are expected to attend as there are a number of members of the various lodges situated throughout New England who are stationed at these camps, and have stated their intentions of attending.

Massachusetts Lodge itself has ten members in the service, four of whom are in France.

A large gathering is expected as there are considerably over 250 tickets out, a large portion of which have been sold.

On the committee of arrangements:

are: Elmer S. Berger, chairman; Maurice Eisenmann, Richard Herman and P. M. Cohen.

The officers of the organization are: Franklin M. Cohen, president; Elmer S. Berger, vice-president; Gabriel Sanger, treasurer, and J. S. Phillips, secretary.

CHAIRMAN OF BOARD OF PARK COMMISSIONERS

Judge Swig of Taunton, Unanimously Confirmed by Municipal Council

Judge Louis Swig of Taunton, was appointed a member of the Board of Park Commissioners of that city for a term of five years by Mayor Flood and his appointment was promptly confirmed unanimously by the Municipal Council under a suspension of the rules.

The very first meeting of the commissioners that the Judge attended, he was further honored, by being unanimously elected by his four associates as chairman of the board.

A NOTED OPTICIAN

Dr. J. M. Teitelbaum, who for the last four years has been identified with the Gilechrist Company, has taken offices at 8 Winter St., corner of Washington St., Boston. He has opened optical parlors which are equipped with the latest facilities for examining and fitting eyeglasses and spectacles. Dr. Teitelbaum has always had a large patronage among people who have been obliged to use glasses. He is now better prepared than ever to serve his customers. His parlors are not exceeded by any in Boston in elegance, equipment or in facilities to meet the wants of a constantly growing patronage. He wishes to announce that he is prepared by training and experience and he has the best facilities to serve his old friends and the public with the latest and best scientific methods of correcting all eye defects.

DISPLAYS NEWEST CREATIONS IN FURS

Mr. B. H. Ludwig has just returned from an extended trip to Washington, Philadelphia, Atlantic City and New York, where he has inspected and made a special study of the very newest creations in Spring and Summer furs. Mr. Ludwig's business methods are "up-to-the-minute" and mild; can best secure by ordering from the beautiful display of the latest modes in furs. A visit to Mr. Ludwig's spacious show-rooms at 420 Boylston St. will amply reward in the style suggestions so necessary today to appear to advantage in the present-day fashions.

SOCIAL ITEMS

ALLSTON

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Golden, formerly of Bangor, Me., now residing at 215 Harvard Ave., are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, born Saturday, March 9th. Mrs. Golden was before her marriage Miss Helen Rybier of London, England.

BACK BAY & BROOKLINE

Miss Theresa Cohen of 1183 Beacon St., has returned home from a two weeks' tour through Atlantic City, Washington and New York City.

Mrs. M. M. Morse has returned to this city after spending a week in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Frank entertained Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Ehrlich, Mr. and Mrs. L. Eisenmann and Mr. and Mrs. Felix Vorenberg at dinner last Thursday evening.

Messrs. David Ackerman and Walter Kaffenbush spent several weeks at Pinehurst, motoring there and enjoying the golf season.

Dr. Harry Solomon left this city for medical service in the army last Sunday. Dr. Solomon is well known for his excellent work at the Psychopathic Hospital and for being collaborator with Dr. Southard in several scientific works.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Frank are in Cincinnati the guests of Dr. and Mrs.