

Jews in Serbia were related in an address by Dr. Isaac Alkalay, Chief Rabbi of Serbia, at an open meeting held under the auspices of the Haggai Lodge, No. 132, I. O. B. A., last Sunday evening, in Keith's Hall. Henry D. Bellin, president of the lodge, presided at the meeting. Rabbi Alkalay was welcomed by Rabbis Simon Cohen and Israel Rubenstein of this city.

BANGOR, ME.

The young Jewish women of this city, in charge of Ward 1 last Friday, were very highly praised for their good work in the War Savings Stamps campaign. The committee was composed of Mrs. Anna Savaze, Mrs. Ida Lotwin, the Misses Belle Golden, Sue Cohen, E. Bessie Dennis and Dora Cohen.

BATH, ME.

Lieutenant Maurice I. Green, C. A. C., arrived last Friday evening from Fortress Monroe, Va., for a two weeks leave of absence, with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Green. He enlisted in the Coast Artillery Corps, May, 1917, at which time he was a Sophomore at Brown University.

OLD ORCHARD, ME.

The latest arrivals at the Hotel Empire are: Mr. and Mrs. J. Borden and Archie Porter of Brookline; Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Marblintoff, Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Merrill of Roxbury; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kaplan, Mr. and Mrs. L. Abramson, Mrs. D. Cohen and the Misses Sarah and Bessie Sandman of Boston; Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Cohen and family of Dorchester; Frank Brown and George Reubin.

• • • • •
The Orpheus Social Club of Brooklyn, N. Y., has arranged to spend its Fourth of July celebration at Old Orchard Beach, and will register at the Hotel Empire. They are planning to make the trip, both ways, in automobiles.

PROVIDENCE, R. I.

The high accomplishments in religious culture and social life of the