

Bath, Me., News Notes

Greenblatt, Abraham E. Greenblatt

By SOPHIE G. GREENBLATT

Miss Isabel Gediman returned Sunday from Portland, where she passed a week with her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mosk.

Sam Povich was one of the featured soloists in the minstrel revue, "Anchors Aweigh," presented by Roland Smith Post No. 21, American Legion, June 10 and 11.

Israel W. Greenblatt was a member of the committee of juniors in charge of decorating the high school gymnasium for the reception of the class of 1935, Morse High.

Miss Sylvia Kutz, a member of the junior class at Morse High, is able to be out again after having been confined to her home with scarlet fever.

The Misses Ida M. Lindenburg and Sara E. Lindenburg were one of the rare sets of twins to be graduated from Morse High School this month. Both were graduated with honors from the commercial course. They are daughters of Mrs. Mary Lindenburg and the late Jacob Lindenburg.

Miss Ruth E. Cohen, valedictorian of the class of 1935, Morse High, was awarded the Elizabeth R. Moses prize for the senior scoring highest in the annual general information test. Miss Cohen out-ranked 92 pupils, the class of 1935, numbering 93, being the second largest class in the history of the school. The largest class, numbering 112, was graduated in 1925.

Miss Minnie Brown, who is employed in the office of the attorney-general in Augusta, passed the week-end at her home.

Among the young pupils of Miss Thelma W. Dearing taking part in a piano recital in the form of a musical sketch were Riva Civia Greenblatt, and Ruth, Edward, and Gerald Cogan.

Mrs. Samuel Levin was a recent business visitor in Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Isadore Singer attended Brunswick High School graduation exercises. Mr. Singer's sister, Miss Goldie Singer, was third highest ranking student of the class, numbering 90, the largest ever to be graduated from Brunswick High. Miss Singer, a member of Hawthorne Chapter, National Honor Society, of Brunswick High, was prominent in many class activities. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max H. Singer.

Rev. Samuel Pinsky has gone to New York for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Pinsky, before going to Old Orchard for the Summer months.

Miss Mary Arik of Laconia, N. H., is visiting her sister, Mrs. David S. Cogan, and Mr. Cogan.

Louis M. Silverman was recently in Portland to attend a banquet and meeting of Philco dealers.

Mrs. Morris H. Cohen entertained one Sunday afternoon recently with a tea for her daughter, Miss Ruth E. Cohen, valedictorian of the graduating class at Morse. Mrs. David S. Cogan and Miss Evelyn Petlock poured. Guests were present from Brunswick, Portland and Rockland, as well as from Bath.

Miss Sophia Mikelsky Mikels of Mikelsky's Music Store, Inc., was a recent Boston business visitor.

Dr. and Mrs. Joseph I. Smith and sons, Bladen and James, recently passed a week with friends in Geneva and Cleveland, Ohio. Upon their return they visited Niagara Falls and came to Bath via the Mountains.

Edward Cohen was among the Boy Scouts attending a Camporee in Portland.

Miss Bessie M. Mikels was a recent visitor in Boston, also in Brookline, where she was a guest of her sister, Mrs. David S. Smith, formerly Miss Freda Mikels.

Among those in Lewiston for the presentation of a musical revue, "Daffy Dillies of 1935," by the Twin City Lodge, B'nai B'rith, were: Mr. and Mrs. David S. Cogan, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Gediman, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Goldstein, Miss Thelma Goldstein, Samuel Pfeffer, Mr. and Mrs. Isadore Singer, Miss Ada Y

Bar Mitzvah of Beth Israel Synagogue was observed Tuesday evening, May 21, Lag B'Omar night, in the synagogue, where gathered members of the community as well as out of town guests, some of them former Bath residents. Among the guests were Rabbi Morris H. Chapman of Lewiston, principal speaker and Rabbi Greenfield of Auburn who also addressed the gathering. Rev. Samuel Pinsky was another speaker. Spiritual services were held in the synagogue proper with Samuel Preffer as master of ceremonies. Morris H. Cohen sang. Later in the vestry a birthday cake baked by Mrs. David S. Cogan was lighted with 13 candles, the honor of lighting them going to Louis Abromson of Lewiston, formerly of Bath and a charter member of the synagogue. He called upon the men who were charter members and who had laid the cornerstone of the synagogue to light the candles. A short talk was given by Morris S. Povich, president of the Congregation. A newspaper clipping about the dedication of the synagogue 13 years ago was read by Mrs. Isadore Singer. A skit was given by Mr. Cogan and Arthur W. Gediman. Light refreshments were served, and dancing followed. The affair was in charge of the Hebrew Ladies' Society and Beth Israel Congregation. Among the out-of-town guests were Miss Cella Abromson, Mr. and Mrs. A. Miller, Mrs. Harold Supovitz, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Persky, of Lewiston, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Abelon, Miss Esthei Abelon, Israel Abelon, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Abelon of Brunswick; Miss Mary Arik of Laconia, N. H.