

Bath, Maine, News-Notes

By SOPHIE G. GREENBLATT

Phillip Riseman of Boston arrived Tuesday evening to pass his vacation from Kennedy's with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Solomon K. Greenblatt.

Mrs. Benjamin Gediman left Sunday for Fall River, Mass., to visit her son, Mark Gediman and family, and her daughter, Miss Esta M. Gediman. She was accompanied as far as Boston by her son, Julius.

Mrs. Joseph I. Smith was among the visitors at Lakewood Saturday night.

Among those in Augusta Sunday to attend a shower for Miss Rose Freedman, whose marriage to Phillip Fixman of Brockton, Mass., will take place in September, were Mr. and Mrs. Morris H. Cohen, Miss Ruth E. Cohen, Mr. and Mrs. David S. Cogan, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Petlock, Miss Evelyn Petlock, Miss Esther J. Petlock.

Miss Ada Y. Greenblatt left Sunday for Boston and vicinity to pass two weeks' vacation from her duties as secretary in the office of Roger D. Skillings.

Samuel Levine and son, Al, of Boston, arrived Sunday to return with Mrs. Levine and sons, Charles and Bobby, who passed two weeks with Mrs. Levine's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Solomon K. Greenblatt.

Members of the Jewish community recently enjoyed a picnic at Sandy Cove. A program of sports was among the events of the day, and participating in them were Bath people and out of town friends.

Mrs. Bernard Greenberg, son, Arthur, of Orlando, Fla., Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Greenberg, daughter, Cynthia Ann, of Hartford, Conn., and Mr. Greenberg's father, David E. Greenberg, of Springfield, Mass., returned recently after a visit with Mrs. Bernard Greenberg's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Margolis.

Mrs. George Fine and daughter, Lois, of Brockton, Mass., have returned after a visit with Mrs. Fine's sister-in-law, Mrs. Samuel Korolick, and Mr. Korolick. Mrs. Korolick's brother and sister, David Fine and Miss Pat Fine, both of Brockton, have also returned after a week's visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Korolick and daughter, Joan, returned recently to their home from Roxbury, Mass., where they were called by the sudden death of Mr. Korolick's father, Harris Korolick, following an operation.