

Bath, Maine, News Notes

By SOPHIE G. GREENBLATT

Junior Council of Beth Israel sponsored its first social on Sunday evening in the vestry of Beth Israel Synagogue. The committee was Mary Arik, Thelma Goldstein, Ada Y. Greenblatt, Evelyn Petlock, and Edward S. Gediman, president of the club. Announcement was made of a dance to be held in the vestry on New Year's Eve.

Miss Ruth E. Cohen, second year student at Simmons College, is passing the holiday recess with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Morris H. Cohen. She was a member of the committee for the Sophomore Shuffle, annual dance held recently.

Mrs. David S. Cogan and Ada Y. Greenblatt were among those taking part in the program for the annual silver tea given Sunday by the Cosmopolitan Club. Mrs. Louis M. Silverman was a member of the committee on games for the children's party given Monday afternoon by the Cosmopolitan Garden Club.

Harry Abelon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Abelon of Brunswick, who was recently elected secretary of the freshman class at Tufts Dental School, is passing the holiday recess at home. He was a recent Bath visitor.

Miss Mary Abramson, formerly of Bath, a student at the University of Michigan Graduate Institute of Social Science, is passing her vacation in Lewiston with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Abramson.

Mrs. Lewis Orkin of Geneva, O., arrived recently for a visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Joseph I. Smith, and Dr. Smith.

Sam Povich and Jay Povich were among the members of the Bath Lodge of Elks going to Lewiston recently on the occasion of the annual inspection of the lodge in that city.

Ruth Cogan's essay on the life of Juliette Low was given honorable mention in the essay contest open to all Girl Scouts in the city under the direction of Mrs. Archibald M. Main, chairman of the local council. She is a member of Wise Owl Troop.

Dr. and Mrs. Joseph I. Smith were among the passengers sailing for Bermuda December 19 on the S.S. Monarch of Bermuda. They were tendered a bon voyage party by the young married set in the community before leaving for New York.