

Bath, Me., News Notes

By SOPHIE G. GREENBLATT

A successful Dutch supper was sponsored Sunday evening in the vestry of Beth Israel Synagogue by the Hebrew Ladies' Society, with Mrs. David S. Cogan, president, in general charge. Mrs. Morris H. Cohen had charge of the kitchen, assisted by Mrs. Max Kutz and Mrs. Samuel Levin. Mrs. Morris S. Povich was chairman of the dining room, where she was assisted by Meses. Arthur W. Gediman, Max Klatzkin, Joseph I. Smith, H. Jacob Smith, Samuel Prawer, Miss Jeanette Miller and Miss Thelma Goldstein. Among those present from out of town were Ell Nagin of Freeport, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Share, and Miss Esther Abelon, of Brunswick.

Miss Hilda Adam has arrived from New York City for a visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. Morris Margolis, and Mr. Margolis.

Miss Ada Y. Greenblatt is a member of the serving committee for the annual mother-daughter banquet of the Cosmopolitan Club. Miss Ida Cohen was a member of the committee from Wild Rose Troop of Girl Scouts in charge of a New Year's party recently.

Miss Esta M. Gediman is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Samuel Lebewohl, in Brookline, after a visit in New York and in Fall River. Her sister, Miss Emily Gediman, has returned after a ten days' visit in Brookline and in Fall River, visiting her brother, Mark Gediman, and family, in the latter community.

If you always want to talk about yourself, don't pick out egotists for companions.

Attend no auctions if thou hast no money.