

Bath, Me., News-Notes

Triplets, a son and two daughters, were born Tuesday, March 16, in Bath Memorial Hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Morris H. Cohen of 10 Old South place. Dr. Joseph I. Smith was the attending physician. The triplets are the first in this city in many years, the last record of any being in 1905, none of the three, city records show, surviving. The Cohens have four other children, Ruth, a second-year student at Simmons College; Edward B., Ida R., and Sylvia. Mrs. Cohen is a daughter of the late Anna Leah Petlock and the late Nathan Petlock.

Mrs. Joseph I. Smith was appointed chairman of legislative and federative news and Miss Sophie G. Greenblatt was appointed publicity chairman for the Cosmopolitan Club at the annual meeting held March 10. Mrs. Paul G. Bagdikian, new president, made the reappointments.

Edward B. Cohen was a member of the junior class committee in charge of the March 12 dance in Morse High gymnasium.

Ruth Cogan and Riva Civia Greenblatt were among the piano pupils of Miss Thelma W. Dearing appearing in a recital on March 11.

Mr. and Mrs. David S. Cogan as chairman, and Miss Sophie G. Greenblatt were among those appearing in a West Bath grange program on March 15.

Judge Max L. Pinansky of Portland addressed the Fireside Club of Winter Street Congregational Church on Sunday, March 14.

At the meeting to organize the 90th City Council Monday night, March 15, Councilman Arthur W. Gediman was elected a member of the Board of Highways and Sewers, a Fence Viewer.

Joseph L. Singer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Max H. Singer of Brunswick, was admitted to the practice of law by Associate Justice Guy H. Sturgis of the Maine Supreme Court at the convening of the March term Tuesday, March 9, in Portland. He was presented by Judge Max Pinansky of Portland. Mr. Singer, who stood third highest in rank in the list of the 13 who passed the February bar examination, taken by 22, has opened an office in the Fidelity Building in Brunswick.

Among those attending the Bates College basketball tournament in Lewiston on March 5, when Morse High School played, were Iscar W. Greenblatt of the Morse team, Edward B. Cohen, Miss Isabel Gediman, all of the high school; Abraham E. Greenblatt, Miss Sophie G. Greenblatt, Dr. and Mrs. Joseph I. Smith and son, Bladen, Jay Povich, and Louis Miller.

Mrs. Arthur W. Gediman and daughter, Eleanor, Mrs. David S. Cogan and daughter, Ruth, Mrs. Solomon K. Greenblatt and daughter, Sophie, Miss Marcia L. Petlock, Miss Ida R. Cohen, and Mrs. H. Jacob Smith were among those attending the mother-daughter Girl Scout silver jubilee banquet on March 17.

Mrs. Isadore Singer, Mrs. David S. Cogan and Miss Sophie G. Greenblatt took part in a minstrel show and entertainment at the Cosmopolitan Club on March 17.

A poem by seven-year-old Riva Civia Greenblatt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Solomon K. Greenblatt, appears in the March issue of the St. Nicholas League of St. Nicholas magazine as her first contribution to the League.

Among those in Portland to attend the 13th annual N. E. Interscholastic basketball tournament during the last week-end were Morris Petlock, Sam Povich, Iscar W. Greenblatt.