

Bath, Me., News Notes

By SOPHIE G. GREENBLATT

Riva Clvia Greenblatt, eight-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Solomon K. Greenblatt, was among those taking part in a children's program presented at West Bath Grange Monday evening, June 28.

William David Levin, Morse '32, was graduated in mid-June from Bowdoin College with the degree of B. S. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Levin.

Miss Isabel Rose Gediman and Isear W. Greenblatt were graduated from Morse High School, the former having completed the commercial course and the latter, the college course. Miss Gediman, writer of the class ode, was elected to membership in the National Honor Society at the class day exercises, Miss Sylvia Kutz, Morse '36 and a student at Rider College in Trenton, N. J., being one of the committee performing the initiation.

Members of the Junior Council of Beth Israel held a picnic at Small Point recently.

Pupils of Miss Thelma W. Dearing taking part in the annual June recital on the 24th were Miss Ruth E. Cogan and Riva Clvia Greenblatt.

At the 46th annual meeting of the Bath High School Alumni Association on June 17, Miss Sophie G. Greenblatt, Morse '29, was elected a member of the executive committee of the association.

Mrs. David S. Cogan, Miss Mary Arik, Mrs. Solomon K. Greenblatt and Mrs. Vera Goldberg, the last named of Boston, were among those attending a party given Tuesday evening, June 22, for mothers of pupils of Miss Thelma W. Dearing.

Repeating her achievement of a year ago, Miss Ruth E. Cogan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David S. Cogan, won the spelling match championship for her division at a recent spelling match for public schools. A seventh grade pupil, she won the match for the seventh and eighth grades of the city and her cousin, Miss Ida R. Cohen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris H. Cohen and an eighth grade pupil, was second. Bladen Smith, son of Dr. and Mrs. Joseph I. Smith and a fourth grade pupil, placed second in the division for fourth grades.