

Bath, Maine, News Notes

By SOPHIE G. GREENBLATT

Dr. Jacob Smith, who has been located in Bath for the past year, has been made a member of the staff of the Bath Memorial Hospital. Dr. Smith was graduated from Bowdoin College in 1931 and from the University of Vermont in 1935, and interned in Auburn City Hospital, Auburn, N. Y., before coming to Bath.

Rabbi Max Klatzkin, Mrs. Klatzkin, daughter, Edith, and son, Oscar, left recently for Rockland, where they are making their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Max H. Singer, Joseph L. Singer, Miss Goldie Singer, of Brunswick, and Mr. and Mrs. Morris C. Robinson, Judith Robinson and Merton Robinson, of Lisbon Falls, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Isadora Singer, who on November 1 took up their residence at 81 Bedford street.

Mrs. Jacob Smith entertained the Hebrew Ladies' Society, of which she is secretary, on Sunday evening. Plans were made for a card party to be held in the vestry of Beth Israel Synagogue on Sunday, November 21, with Mrs. Smith as chairman; and for a Chanukah party. Mrs. Joseph I. Smith and Mrs. David S. Cogan will be in charge of the entertainment for the Chanukah party and the committee in charge of gifts will be Mrs. Morris S. Povich, Mrs. Sam Praver, and Mrs. Arthur W. Gediman.

Mrs. Samuel Berg, of Buffalo, N. Y., arrived last Thursday evening for a visit with her cousin, Mrs. Solomon K. Greenblatt, Mr. Greenblatt, and family. Prior to that evening, Mrs. Greenblatt and Mrs. Berg had not seen each other for 22 years. Both resided at one time in Melrose, Mass.

Hebrew Ladies' Society of Beth Israel Synagogue served a meat loaf supper to a large number, including several from out of town, on Sunday evening, October 31, in the vestry. Mrs. Joseph Solovitch, chairman, Mrs. Max Kutz, Mrs. Morris S. Povich and Mrs. Solomon K. Greenblatt composed the supper committee. Mrs. Sam Levin, president, had charge of the dining room. Waitresses were Mrs. Jacob Smith, Mrs. Joseph I. Smith, Mrs. Samuel Korolick, Mrs. David S. Cogan, Miss Molly Cogan, Miss Evelyn Petlock, and Miss Mary Arik. Mrs. Sam Praver had charge of tickets. A feature of the evening was the dedication, in the synagogue, of a perpetual light in memory of the late Nathan Povich. The light was a gift of the Povich family, and Mrs. Morris S. Povich, daughter of the late Nathan Povich, had the privilege of first lighting the memorial. At the close of supper, in the vestry, there were solos by Morris H. Cohen and a reading by Miss Mary Arik.

Invitations have been received from Moses H. Weinblatt of this city, to the engagement of his daughter, Rose, to Max Tishler, Sunday afternoon, November 28, at 1:30, at Zinn's banquet hall, 133 Mathewson street, Providence, R. I.
