

BATH, MAINE

Henry Cediman, who received his discharge in Boston after serving twenty-two months as radio and telegraph operator in the navy was given a cordial welcome by his family and friends upon his return to this city.