EXTRACTS FROM THE BY-LAWS

The annual meeting of the Corporation shall be held the third Monday of July.

Deposits may be made of any sum not less than one dollar. Interest will not be allowed on any sum less than one dollar, nor on fractional parts of a dollar.

Deposits may be made by any persons, without limitations as to residence. The Trustees may decline receiving deposits when they deem it expedient, and may, at their pleasure, repay all or any part of any deposit to the person entitled to receive the same.

Any depositor with the consent of the Trustees, may designate in writing the time the sum deposited by him shall remain in the institution, and the person to whom the deposit and dividends thereon shall be payable, and may prescribe any other special conditions of deposit.

Upon the death of any depositor or other person entitled to receive any deposit, the amount standing to the credit of said depositor or other person, shall be paid to his legal representatives, and if the sum is less than one hundred dollars it may be paid to the widow or the next of kin to the deceased, without legal administration on his estate.
