Pres. Shirley Smith suggested we hold an auction sale to raise money. There was considerable discussion re this idea, all quite favorable. It was agreed that we would need the help of our men folks in this project, also the help of some people in the Auction & Antique business. Pres. S. Smith will contact several the local antique dealers and report their responses. Some of the people to be contacted are- Prindle- Kimball- Pooley- Walfield- Thistle.

It was decided with encouragement from Lilian Kanas that we have a Purim party, lunch, program for the kiddies and of course the hamentoshen we must have because what is Purim without hamentoshen?

Pres. Smith asked cleaning man Mr. Barnett to clean floor and he asks $50.00. Pres will ask him again if he can do it for less. If not will look into someone else to clean floor for less than $50.00.

Pres. Smith brought up auction. She suggested doing it on a small scale (a mini-auction) and have it in our basement - Linda called Pridall and she will be auctioneer and will not charge for this service because we are a non-profit charitable organization.

E. Prawer suggested maybe asking a dealer for auction for our stuff when he is planning his auction of his own.
