More About Nettie Wise:

Employer: Federal Government

Location: 1999, Silver Spring, MD

Medical Information: Parkinson's disease

Notes for Isadore Shapiro:

Isadore retired after working for 40 years for the government.

The 1920 census shows Isadore's parents, Samuel, 34, and "Aida," 23, living in Edwardsville Borough in Luzerne County, Pennsylvania. They are renting in a two family house at 517 Main St. Both are listed as born in Poland and their immigration dates are shown as 1906 and 1903 (dates are not clear) respectively. Samuel is shown as a painter.

The 1930 census shows Isadore's family in Kingston, PA, Luzerne County. His father Samuel, age 43, is shown as a painting contractor who had emigrated from Lithuania in 1918. His wife Ida, 35, had emigrated in 1915 or 1916 from Russia. They had married in about 1918, though they appear not to be listed in the 1920 census index. 2-year-old Isadore had older siblings Esther 10, and Philip, 7.

Occupation: Furniture business

Notes for Jack I. Novick:

Though he is shown as Jack I. Novick in the Maine on-line marriage database, he appears in the 1930 census as Jack E. Novick. Jack's parents were Samuel and Annie Novick. According to Jack's son Sam, Jack's father Sam settled in Portland in 1906, married Annie Serlick in 1912, and opened Hub Furniture in 1913.

The family doesn't appear in the 1910 census index. Some pages of the census are faint, so it may be that appropriate pages were too faint to read.
